Male Bias In The Development Process:

Male Bias in the Development Process Diane Elson, 1995 This book argues that the development process is marked by male bias ill founded and unjustified asymmetries that operate in favour of men and against women The contributors include some of the leading writers in the gender and development field Diane Elson Delia Davin Susie Jacobs Carolynne Dennis Alison MacEwan Scott and Ruth Pearson Together they analyze the variety of forms taken by male bias its foundations and the way it changes over time and the possibilities of overcoming it The cases considered cover both urban and rural settings agriculture industry and services self employment and wage employment and Africa Asia and Latin America

Modernization and the Crisis of Development in Africa Jeremiah I. Dibua, 2017-11-28 In this book Jeremiah I Dibua challenges prevailing notions of Africa s development crisis by drawing attention to the role of modernization as a way of understanding the nature and dynamics of the crisis and how to overcome the problem of underdevelopment He specifically focuses on Nigeria and its development trajectory since it exemplifies the crisis of underdevelopment in the continent He explores various theoretical and empirical issues involved in understanding the crisis including state class gender and culture often neglected in analysis from an interdisciplinary radical political economy perspective This is the first book to adopt such an approach and to develop a new framework for analyzing Nigeria s and Africa s development crisis It will influence the debate on the development dilemma of African and Third World societies and will be of interest to scholars and students of race and ethnicity modern African history class analysis gender studies and development studies

Globalization and the Margins R. Grant, J. Short, 2002-09-06 Globalization has become one of the dominant ideas of recent times However is the debate on globalization as global as it ought to be In this book Grant and Rennie Short have brought together prominent experts in the field to consider how globalization affects marginalized countries and groups A variety of case studies provide a unique assessment of the issue of globalization and offer a new look at the relationship between the global and the local

Globalizing South China Carolyn Cartier, 2011-07-26 This insightful account demonstrates that capitalism in China has a history and a geography and combines perspectives from both to demonstrate that regional economic restructuring in South China is far from an economic miracle s Find out more information about the RGS IBG journals by following the links below AREA <http://www.blackwellpublishing.com/journal.asp?ref=0004-0894> The Geographical Journal <http://www.blackwellpublishing.com/journal.asp?ref=0016-7398> Transactions of the Insitute of British Geographers <http://www.blackwellpublishing.com/journal.asp?ref=0020-2754>

Globalizing Women Valentine M. Moghadam, 2005-02-16 Globalization may offer modern feminism its greatest opportunity and greatest challenge Allowing communication and information exchange while also exacerbating economic and social inequalities globalization has fostered the growth of transnational feminist networks TFNs These groups have used the Internet to build coalitions lobby governments and advance the goals of feminism Globalizing Women explains how the negative and positive aspects of globalization have helped to create transnational networks of activists and organizations with common agendas Sociologist Valentine M Moghadam discusses six such feminist networks to analyze the organization objectives programs and outcomes of these groups in their effort to improve conditions for women throughout the world Moghadam also examines how globalizing women are responding to and resisting growing inequalities the exploitation of female labor and patriarchal fundamentalisms The Political Economy of Development: Resources and sectors in development Amitava Krishna Dutt,2002 This three volume set collects previously published articles in the field of development economics covering alternative approaches and going beyond the boundaries of economics narrowly defined Some of the included papers are classic contributions some are authoritative survey articles and others are more recent contributions The collection covers topics such as underdevelopment growth and income distribution resources in development sectoral issues open economy issues and economic policies and institutions The final section offers appraisals of the present state and future evolution of development economics Women and Adjustment Policies in the Third World Haleh Afshar,Carolynne Dennis,1992-02-16 The Third World debt crisis the International Monetary Fund and World Bank s adjustment policies have compelled many countries to move towards a contraction of public sector expenditure in favour of market orientated development policies Women in general and the poorest amongst them in particular have borne a disproportionate burden of the ensuing hardships This book addresses the shortcomings in the current gender blind analytical frameworks of governments and financial organisations and offers alternative strategies for combating recession and poverty Contemporary Global Issues in Social Sciences Usamard Siampukdee,2005 International Labour Documentation ,1999-07 Encyclopedia of International Development Tim Forsyth,2018-10-24 International development is now a major global activity and the focus of the rapidly growing academic discipline of development studies The Encyclopedia of International Development provides definitions and discussions of the key concepts controversies and actors associated with international development for a readership of development workers teachers and students With 600 entries ranging in length from shorter factual studies to more in depth essays a comprehensive system of cross references and a full index it is the most definitive guide to international development yet published Development is more than a simple increase in a country s wealth and living conditions It also implies increasing people s choices and freedoms it is change that is inclusive and empowering Development theory and practice has important applications to questions of economic growth trade governance education healthcare gender rights and environmental protection and it involves issues such as international aid peacekeeping famine relief and strategies against HIV AIDS The Encyclopedia treats these topics and many more and provides critical analyses of important actors within development such as the United Nations and World Bank non governmental organizations and corporations Contributors to this volume reflect the multidisciplinary and international nature of the subject They come from social science disciplines such as economics international studies political science and anthropology and from specialities such as medicine This Encyclopedia provides crucial information for universities students and professional organizations involved with international development and those interested in related topics such as international studies or other studies of social and economic change today Approaches to Women in Development/gender Frank Bliss,1995 Whose Development? Emma Crewe,Elizabeth Harrison,1998-12 This book is an ethnography of development in practice It builds on recent work in the anthropology of development in its examination of the evolution and persistence of a number of key ideas about gender technology and race It explores how these are rooted in both material practices and ideologies notably the Enlightenment and colonialism but goes beyond previous studies which have tended to focus mainly on the apparently monolithic power of the developers The authors argue for a more nuanced account of power through analysis of the relationship between individual agency and structural constraint Their fascinating study shows how a simple dichotomy between us the developers and them the victims of development misconstrues the nature of the processes involved Skill Development for International Competitiveness Martin Godfrey,1997 It approaches the question from two angles It considers first how skill development affects a country s international competitiveness and secondly what a government should do to develop a country s skills It concludes that development of skills is necessary for a country to make the transition from primary exports to manufactures and from labour intensive to skill intensive manufacturing Carrying the Burden of the World Jeanne Frances I. Illo,1999 This book reflects the different levels of exploration that women may be harder hit by the crisis than men The New Third World Alfonso Gonzalez,Jim Norwine,1998-04-02 This engaging and accessible text provides an excellent interdisciplinary exploration of the meanings measures patterns and problems associated with the concept of the Third World Fully revised and updated it provides geographical political and economic perspectives on issues of development through a series of thematic and region specific chapters Structural Adjustment and Gender, Empowerment Or Disempowerment Tanzania Gender Networking Programme,1994 Rethinking Women in Development Joan Akinyi Othieno,2002 The Economics of Woman and Work in the Middle East and North Africa E. Mine Çinar,2001-05-10 Annotation The Economics of Women and Work in the Middle East and North Africa brings together a series of excellent articles on a very important but under researched issue The topics covered in this volume range from cross country comparisons of women s economic situation with an emphasis on employment trends to micro level studies of employment and fertility patterns for a number of Middle Eastern and North African countries including Egypt Turkey Palestine and Iran Women and Gender Equity in Development Theory and Practice Jane S. Jaquette,Gale Summerfield,2006-03-27 The book is divided into three main parts which includes institutional opportunities and barriers livelihood and control of resources and womens mobilization and power Gender and Development ,1995
