For the Love of Literature John F. Savage, 2000 This brief children s literature text for pre service teachers emphasizes the love of literature in the belief that literature is not just something children read or study it is something that becomes part of them and stays with them for a lifetime It contains up to the minute treatments of all genres of children s literature To help readers discover the joy of children s literature and how to help others share that joy is a major goal of the book The emphasis is on the affective dimensions of literature geared toward children's aesthetic responses to the stories and poems that they read. Author profiles, a multicultural focus, topical book lists, and a chapter on technology are elements that help students. Each chapter has an essay written by a scholar, a classroom teacher, or other expert, e.g., a middle school student or book editor who has special knowledge, a particular perspective, or point of view on the chapter topic. Three-four color inserts illustrate the children's books discussed in the text.

Using Literature in the Middle School Curriculum Carol Otis Hurst, Rebecca Otis, 1999. In this valuable resource, Hurst and Otis bring together the methods and philosophy for the extensive use of trade books in the middle school curriculum. Novels, picture books, and non-fiction materials are summarized and extended within the context of themes, literary study, and focus books for discussion and activities in the classroom and library. Eighteen fully developed themes enable educators to bring literature into other areas of the curriculum. In addition, 29 literary works are explored through further activities and discussion, again reaching into many curriculum areas. A section on literary study that includes symbolism, foreshadowing, and flashbacks helps teachers guide students to an analytical level in their reading and writing. Both teachers and students will greatly benefit from this useful resource.
