Mamas Promises Poems:

Mama's Promises Marilyn Nelson, 1985-09-01 Waniek is a poet of intelligence passion and gentleness with a fine sense of the comic and unfailing judgment about what constitutes a poetic line She creates a rich mixture of impressions about the speaker of these poems as a woman who is at the same time in her mid twenties and her mid fifties who is black and white and red who is both trapped by and freed by motherhood Miller Williams Marilyn Nelson Waniek writes with great wisdom and compassion Grounded but never earthbound her poems speak honestly and eloquently about giving birth nurturing life and facing death they inhabit the present fully aware of their responsibilities to the past and the future Waniek leaves us with the affecting strength and assurance of lasting things as in the poem Mama s Promise But the dangerous highway curves through blue evenings when I hold his yielding hand and snip his minuscule nails with my vicious looking scissors I carry him around like an egg in a spoon and I remember a porcelain fawn a best friend s trust my broken faith in myself It s not my grace that keeps me erect as the sidewalk clatters downhill under my rollerskate wheels Then I think of Mama her bountiful breasts When I was a child I really swear Mama s kisses could heal I remember her promise and whisper it over my sweet son s sleep When you float to the bottom child like a mote down a sunbeam you ll see me from a trillion miles away my eyes looking upon you my arms outstretched for you like night From Mama s Promise published in Mama s Promises by Marilyn Nelson Copyright 1985 by Marilyn Nelson Waniek All rights reserved Mama's promises Marilyn N.
