these days following upon hundreds of years of preaching and exegesis Christianity as usually expounded and understood is more a moral and ethical system for the regulation of conduct than a teaching to inspire one either in the heyday of life or at the last hour with the reality and imminence of life after death I say as usually expounded and understood for the reality of the Resurrection and the imminence of the future life as set forth both by precept and example stand as plainly in Holy Writ now as on that day when the evangelists and apostles first gave their writings to the world It has been my lot during the last twenty five years to converse upon these things with Christians of all shades of belief and rarely have I found that feeling of absolute certainty as to the future which should be the Christian s especial privilege When pressed upon the subject there has almost always been revealed a harassing doubt which has found vent in such expressions as I hope to live again I trust so We must believe that it is so What a blessed thing it would be if we could really know We have to live by faith No one has ever come back and similar expressions all showing the diffidence that lay behind the most sincere profession of religion

Excerpt from Life After Death That it might be made clear that man lives after death and enters in accordance with his life in the world either heaven or hell many things have been disclosed to me about the state of man after death which will be presented in due order in the following pages 317 The resuscitation of man from the dead and his entrance into eternal life When the body is no longer able to perform the bodily functions in the natural world that correspond to the spirit s thoughts and affections which the spirit has from the spiritual world man is said to die This takes place when the respiration of the lungs and the beatings of the heart cease But the man does not die he is merely separated from the bodily part that was of use to him in the world while the man himself continues to live It is said that the man himself continues to live since man is not a man because of his body but because of his spirit for it is the spirit that thinks in man and thought with affection is what constitutes man Evidently then the death of man is merely his passing from one world into another About the Publisher

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
