Mighty Big River:

A Mighty Big River Gerard O'Brien,2008-08-04 The Zaire Congo River the second biggest and sixth longest river on earth its course a vast 4 640kms of sluggish meandering island studded mystery broken in places by fearful rapids and falls fringed by dense rain forest and inhabited by primitive tribes and wild animals Few places can evoke the same images of dark brooding menace and danger and few places can have justified such impressions from the horrors of the Congo Free State through the Stanleyville massacres to the chaos and blood letting of the post Mobutu years In 1984 Mobutu was at the height of his power and ruled Zaire with an iron fist It was at this time that the author set off to follow the course of the river from its source to the mouth alone by dug out canoe and on foot His matter of fact narrative as he describes the perils and tribulations of the journey which culminated in a spell in a Kinshasa prison offers a fascinating insight into the life of the ordinary people under the regime of President Mobutu The Free Rangers Joseph A. uninhabited prairies of western Iowa Does thee think it could be Indians Joshua asked Hannah Peniman her face growing white as she viewed the cloud of dust which appeared momentarily to be coming nearer I can t tell I can t see yet answered her husband turning anxious eyes from the musket he was hastily loading toward the cloud of dust But whatever it is it is coming this way It might be a herd of elk or buffalo but anyway we must be prepared Get inside Hannah and thee and the little ones keep well under cover In the other wagon two younger boys had joined the lad who was driving On the seat beside him now sat a merry faced brown eyed lad of fourteen and leaning on their shoulders peering out between them was a boy of twelve the twin of the twelve year old girl in the other wagon with red hair laughing blue eyes and a round freckled face Sam was the mischief of the family and was generally larking and laughing but now his face looked rather pale beneath its coat of tan and freckles and the eyes which he fastened on the horizon had in them an expression of terror Do you suppose it s Indians Joe he whispered huskily Did you hear what that man told Father at Fort Dodge the other day He said that Indians had set on an emigrant train near Fontanelle and murdered the whole party Youth.
