Crisis and Migration Anna Lindley, 2014-07-11 Crisis and migration have a long association in popular and policy discourse as well as in social scientific analysis Despite the emergence of more nuanced and even celebratory accounts of mobility in recent years there remains a persistent emphasis on migration being either a symptom or a cause of crisis Moreover in the context of a recent series of headline hitting and politically controversial situations terms like migration crisis and crisis migration are acquiring increasing currency among policy makers and academics Crisis and Migration provides fresh perspectives on this routine association critically examining a series of politically controversial situations around the world Drawing on first hand research into the Arab uprisings conflict and famine in the Horn of Africa cartel violence in Latin America the global economic crisis and immigration crises from East Asia to Southern Africa to Europe the book's contributors situate a set of contemporary crises within longer histories of social change and human mobility showing the importance of treating crisis and migration as contextualised processes rather than isolated events By exploring how migration and crisis articulate as lived experiences and political constructs the book brings migration from the margins to the centre of discussions of social transformation and crisis illuminates the acute politicisation and diverse spatialisations of crisis migration relationships and urges a nuanced cautious and critical approach to associations of crisis and migration

The Immigrant Phenomenon and Global Civilization. The Concept of Acculturation Murat Şengöz, 2023-05-22 Academic Paper from the year 2023 in the subject Politics Topic Globalization Political Economics course Political Science language English abstract In this study the relationship between the concept of global citizenship and immigration will be revealed by qualitative research methods In this context the phenomenon of global citizenship will be handled from an axiological perspective in the axis of the concept of immigration acculturation and globalization The concept of migration means that people are permanently moved from one country or region to another country or region individually or in groups So this is a permanent session change The relocation can take place within the country or abroad but the important point is that permanent migration in the context of political and economic relations rather than the proximity of the migration distance is important In this respect domestic immigration is a major humanitarian economic and socio cultural problem that needs to be explored and solved Today one of the most important themes of many developed Western countries is to ensure that the immigrant population and the indigenous people live together in harmony This is called integration However the immigrant and refugee issues are undoubtedly one of the most important security and survival problems of our time frame Because what could be more truthful and pathetic than the drama experienced by people who had to leave their country in mass how and how this desperation can be described Migration-Trust Networks Nadia Y Flores Yeffal,2012-12-17 In an important new application of sociological theories Nadia Y Flores Yeffal offers fresh insights into the ways in which social networks function among immigrants who arrive in the United States from Mexico without legal documentation She asks and examines important questions about the commonalities and differences in networks for this group compared with other immigrants and she identifies trust as a major component of networking among those who have little if any legal protection Revealing the complexities behind social networks of international migration Migration Trust Networks Social Cohesion in Mexican US Bound Emigration provides an empirical and theoretical analysis of how social networks of international migration operate in the transnational context Further the book clarifies how networking creates chain migration effects observable throughout history Flores Yeffal s study extends existing social network theories providing a more detailed description of the social micro and macrodynamics underlying the development and expansion of social networks used by undocumented Mexicans to migrate and integrate within the United States with trust relationships as the basis of those networks In addition it incorporates a transnational approach in which the migrant s place of origin whether rural or urban becomes an important variable Migration Trust Networks encapsulates the new realities of undocumented migration from Latin America and contributes to the academic discourse on international migration advancing the study of social networks of migration and of social networks in general Moving Up and Getting On Jill Rutter,2015-07 The question of immigration is a perennial hot topic in politics around the world What gets far less attention is what happens to immigrants after their arrival how they integrate into their newly chosen societies This book draws on fieldwork in London and eastern England analyzing and critiquing the effectiveness of recent policies that aim to promote integration and social cohesion Successful management of immigration Jill Rutter argues requires a greater emphasis on the social aspects of integration and opportunities for meaningful social interactions between migrants and long settled residents particularly in workplaces Insight Turkey / Spring 2023 • Volume 25 - No. 2 Adnan Özdemir,Afshan Khan,Ahmet Furkan Özyakar,Arda Mehmet Tezcanlar,Arif Bağbaşıoğlu,Arif Behiç Özcan,Batu Coşkun,Bengü Çelenk,Burhanettin Duran,Bünyamin Bezci,Cavit Emre AYTEKİN,Çiğdem Pekar,Dilnaz Saipedinova,Ersin Aksoy,Gökhan Çinkara,İ. Aytaç Kadioğlu,Kemal İnat,Laçın İdil Öztüğ,Mirsad Karić,Muhidin Mulalić,Mustafa Altıntaş,Mustafa Fatih Yavuz,Saira Nawaz Abbasi,Sarmad Ali Khan,Talha Köse,Tunç Demirtaş,Valeria Giannotta,Yusuf Çınar,2023-07-01 T rkiye successfully conducted both presidential and parliamentary elections on May 14 the second elections since the change of the governmental system so completing yet another election process without encountering significant issues The People s Alliance led by AK Party has secured the majority in the legislative body the Grand National Assembly of T rkiye Although President Recep Tayyip Erdo an came first in the first round of the presidential elections he could not pass the 50 percent threshold President Erdo an received 52 percent of the votes after the runoff elections on May 28. Thus both President Erdoğan and the AK Party, which has won all general elections since 2002, are continuing in the task of ruling the country for the next five years. Both Turkish and foreign observers and officials have attached great importance to these elections. Some even claimed that this year the Turkish elections are the most important globally due to the implications for international politics. However, it is crucial to emphasize that a significant number of Western media outlets and experts, influenced by their inclination to envision a Turkey without Erdoğan, were unable to accurately forecast and analyze the election outcomes. In certain instances, they even launched direct attacks on Turkish democracy and President Erdoğan. Nevertheless, the election results, which genuinely reflect the national will, served as a profound lesson for all, highlighting the importance of recognizing and respecting the democratic choices made by the Turkish people. Yet the discussions surrounding the election results and their potential impact on Turkey's foreign policy and the broader international political landscape are well founded. There are several expectations from President Erdoğan and his government for the next five years. First of all, President Erdoğan and the AK Party government will consolidate and institutionalize the new governmental system that was introduced after the 2016 July 15 coup attempt, one of the main turning points in the recent history of the country. Although there are high expectations that the Erdoğan government will make some revisions within the new political system, there is no chance to return to a parliamentary system, which was the main promise of the opposition during the election campaign. Second, the current Turkish foreign policy orientation will be consolidated and institutionalized. In recent years, Turkey has been following a relatively independent and Ankara-centered foreign policy orientation. Turkey has abandoned its Western-oriented foreign policy orientation and diversified its foreign relations. In an interview with the press during his first foreign visit since his re-election on May 28, 2023, President Erdoğan has clearly underlined Turkey's diversified foreign policy understanding. He has pointed out that Turkey, which pursues the policy of balance based on national interests, is close to both the West and the East. Third, with the separation of internal and external security after the change of the governmental system, the two inward-looking security institutions, namely the Turkish Armed Forces (TSK) and the National Intelligence Organization (MİT), have experienced a large-scale transformation. Thus, TSK and MİT have become real foreign policy actors and begun playing a more effective role in foreign policy issues, especially in the protection of the country's national security against external threats and in the struggle against anti-Turkish terrorist organizations deployed in different countries. Since then, Turkey has been taking more initiatives in foreign policy issues as a result of high-level harmony between these security institutions and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Furthermore, under the leadership of President Erdoğan, this large-scale harmony among foreign policy actors has enabled Turkey to mobilize hard and soft power at the same time, which is an indication of Turkey's high-level capacity and its strategic autonomy. Fourth, with the increase of the number of foreign policy actors after the introduction and transformation of some state institutions, Turkey has increased its effectiveness in international politics. Governmental institutions such as the Turkish Cooperation and Coordination Agency T KA the Presidency of Turks Abroad and related Communities YTB Yunus Emre Institute YEE and Turkish Maarif Foundation have begun to play effective roles in the foreign policy field Diversification in foreign policy actors is an indication of T rkiye s autonomous foreign policy orientation T rkiye has been deploying different foreign policy actors in different issue areas President Erdo an has declared that T rkiye will prioritize security policy for the next five years By mobilizing hard smart and soft powers of the country and also by activating different foreign policy actors T rkiye will follow an integrated foreign policy understanding The main responsibility of the new government will be the protection of T rkiye s national interests and the provision of peace and stability in its regions T rkiye which opposes the return of a polarized world politics is determined to use diplomatic means and take initiatives in the resolution on international crises President Erdo an and his new government will continue to attach great importance to its relations with the Western countries and to the NATO alliance However T rkiye expects the alliance to take more effective counterterrorism measures and the Western countries not to safeguard anti Turkish terrorist organizations T rkiye will continue to have a bilateral relationship with the West based on equal partnership The new government will push for visa liberalization and updating the customs union in its relations with the European Union One the one hand T rkiye is determined to improve and enhance its relations with other Turkish states especially with Azerbaijan Following the signing of a military alliance after the Second Karabakh War its bilateral relations with Azerbaijan are unique T rkiye will continue to strive for the further integration of the Turkish world On the other hand T rkiye will continue its efforts to bring peace and stability to its regions The Erdo an government is determined to continue the normalization process with other regional countries in the Middle East the Caucasus and the Eastern Mediterranean To sum up T rkiye is determined to consolidate its strategic autonomy to play a leadership and stabilizer role in its regions and to improve its relations with all countries in the world The main priorities of T rkiye are the protection and maximization of its national interests the promotion of the normalization processes and the formation of a Turkish axis in the near future T rkiye expects to achieve these objectives with its strong infrastructure manufacturing industry self reliance in the defense industry and strategic investments in the energy sector among others Thus it will be possible to make an effective start for the vision which has been called Century of T rkiye With that being said the forthcoming issue of Insight Turkey building upon the previous edition that delved into T rkiye s domestic affairs and the upcoming general elections strives to shed light on T rkiye s foreign policy while providing a thorough analysis of past general elections Within this context the current issue presents a comprehensive compilation of four expert comments and four research articles focusing on the subject matter Additionally it broadens the scope by including one off topic comment and three off topic research articles thus enriching the range of topics covered Our commentary section starts with Talha K se s valuable contribution that tackles the relations between T rkiye and the West in particular with the EU Emphasizing that President Erdogan s re election in the 2023 general elections is considered an unexpected development in Europe and many Western countries. Kise argues that this state of surprise stems from the misinformation of decision makers and the public in Türkiye and the West by experts and pollsters. For this reason, the European states who thought that the Table of Six would come to power suspended their relations with Türkiye until the elections, while the post-election Erdoğan victory encouraged the European states to congratulate Türkiye's leader and accept the result as soon as possible. Kise states that various media outlets and think tanks in Europe have taken a more balanced stance against the Turkish president after treating him as an enemy for the last six months and argues that this situation has started a new era in Türkiye-Europe relations. As the Russia-Ukraine war continues, NATO enlargement remains one of the most important topics in the West. In this context, Arif Başbalı focuses on NATO-Türkiye relations through the lenses of the enlargement policy by focusing especially on the case of Sweden and Finland. The author expresses Ankara's stance and cautious attitude towards Finland and Sweden's NATO membership applications and also emphasizes that Türkiye has been generally a supporter of NATO's enlargement policies and that NATO's decision-making process positively affects Türkiye's relations with candidate countries. In our next commentary, Valeria Giannotta provides an overview of Western media perception of the general election of Türkiye. Giannotta emphasizes that the Western media included news that was distorted and created a false perception in the general elections in Türkiye, especially in the first round, that it was a biased reading based on ideological connotations and aimed to influence the result of the vote. She continues that the election results should be seen as a lesson on how to look at Türkiye, its government, and its people and therefore produce more accurate and authentic information, rejecting all kinds of superficial foresight and manipulation attempts. On the other hand, Binyamin Bezci evaluates in detail the May 2023 elections and the reasons that secured the victory of President Erdoğan and the failure of the opposition. According to Bezci, the most important factor that contributed to President Erdoğan's victory has been the popular appreciation of his deeds and performance. This issue centers on Turkish foreign policy, and within it, Burhanettin Duran and Kemal nat present a research article that offers a comprehensive framework for a deeper understanding of the subject. Their article delves into the intricacies of Turkish foreign policy, addressing both regional and global challenges that it encounters. Duran and nat argue that Türkiye took advantage of the deepening competition between global powers under the AK Party to part ways with its traditional foreign policy tradition and pursue a more independent foreign policy. Accordingly, the country expanded its economic and military capacity significantly during the relevant period to make possible the policy of balance between the West, Russia, and China. Following up, Muhidin Mulali and Mirsad Kari focus on Turkish foreign policy in the Balkans, applying Ulrich Beck's theory of cosmopolitanism, reflexivity, and risk on Türkiye's diplomatic relations with the Western Balkan countries. In our next research article, Adnan Zdemir aims to investigate the impact of the Russia-Ukraine war on the foreign trade volume of Türkiye. Zdemir's article discusses the effect of the Russia-Ukraine war on the tourism and contracting sectors, which make the most positive contribution to Türkiye's current account.

deficit and are at the forefront of the economic sectors On the other hand La in dil zt takes a distinct approach to Turkish foreign policy by focusing on neighboring countries Her research paper compares T rkiye s position on the Azerbaijani Armenian conflicts and discusses its impacts and implications in the context of regional dynamics In this article comparing the strategies implemented by T rkiye in foreign policy by evaluating the first and second Karabakh wars zt claimed that T rkiye s support to Azerbaijan in the first Karabakh war was seen as insufficient to change the course of the war while it played a more assertive role in the second Karabakh war In an off topic commentary G khan nkara and Batu o kun analyze the Abraham Accords the subsequent diplomatic initiatives and efforts to create a security umbrella through regional geopolitical shifts and ideological transformations The authors state that the main factors behind the emergence of the Abraham Accords were elite preferences in the Persian Gulf rising nationalism and the quest for permanent political stability sought by the constituents of the Gulf society According to nkara and o kun the Abraham Accords is one of the most significant geopolitical developments in the Middle East in this decade Our spring issue is enriched with three off topic research articles expanding the breadth of our coverage One of these articles authored by Sarmad Ali Khan and Saira Nawaz Abbasi delves into the contemporary understanding of warfare in the 21st century which evolves alongside advancing technologies Specifically they address the pressing subject of cyber warfare and its role in unconventional strategic competition The authors who claim that the U S and China are in competition in every domain argue that cyberspace is militarized and reveals it as the fifth battleground According to Khan and Abbasi cyber campaigns developed by Beijing and Washington for various targets cause a cyber arms race between the two countries Tun Demirta aims to analyze the Tigray crisis in Ethiopia based on the policies of global and regional powers in the context of the African neo colonial order and emphasizes that although the colonial system has ended in the international system the power struggle in Africa continues through neo colonialism Last but not least Ersin Aksoy and Ayta Kad o lu focus on the integration dynamics in the case of Iraqi refugees in Syria Aiming to analyze barriers to integration by addressing geographic proximity cultural threat acceptance processes political rent and limited economic resources the authors evaluate the refugee flow from Iraq to Syria since the 2003 Iraq War in their research papers to understand the impact of these factors As we witnessed one of the most significant elections both for T rkiye and the world on the centennial of the Turkish Republic s founding Insight Turkey proudly presents a special issue that meticulously evaluates the elections and examines how T rkiye s foreign policy will be shaped in their aftermath Through this special edition our aim is to offer our readers a comprehensive analysis of Turkish foreign policy while outlining the implications of the election results in this regard Economic Migration, Social Cohesion and Development Patrick A. Migrants And Social Cohesion : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Migrants And Social Cohesion : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papan, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
