Migration And The New Europe:

Uncommon Alliances Natasa Kovacevic, 2018-03-14 Uncommon Alliances Cultural Narratives of Migration in the New Europe takes a critical stance toward both assimilationist and multicultural imaginings of community in the European Union that occlude neocolonial relations of dependence and exclusion Migration in the New Europe A. Górný, P. Ruspini, 2004-09-21 Migration in the New Europe East West Revisited responds to demand for a study on migration and policy developments in the light of European Union enlargement The innovative character of the book is its approach to the emerging European migration space The editors argue that the concept of a common European migration space will replace the traditional division into East and West because of two simultaneous processes The ongoing European Union enlargement and the creation of a common European Union immigration policy Immigration and Politics in the New Europe Gallya Lahav, 2004-04-22 With almost a quarter of the world's migrants Europe has been attempting to regulate migration and harmonize immigration policy at the European level The central dilemma exposed is how liberal democracies can reconcile the need to control the movement of people with the desire to promote open borders free markets and liberal standards Gallya Lahav's book traces ten years of public opinion and elite attitudes toward immigration cross nationally to show how and why increasing EU integration may not necessarily lead to more open immigration outcomes Empirical evidence reveals that support from both elite and public opinion has led to the adoption of restrictive immigration policies despite the requirements of open borders Unique in bringing together original data on European legislators and national elites longitudinal data on public opinion and institutional and policy analyses this 2004 study provides an important insight into the processes of European integration and globalization more broadly Migration and Welfare in the New Europe Emma Carmel, Alfio Cerami, Theodoros Papadopoulos, 2012 Providing innovative insights this book moves the debate on migration and integration policies in the enlarged European Union and its member states onto new terrain Migration and the New Europe Kimberly A. Hamilton, 1994 En este mundo posterior a la guerra fría estamos asistiendo a la emergencia de una Europa cada vez más preocupada con los problemas de la migración Las futuras relaciones entre Estados Unidos y Europa se ven alteradas al tratar con estos movimientos masivos de personas Ser preciso encontrar nuevas y creativas respuestas para afrontar los retos transnacionales del terrorismo la oportunidad económica la educación y los servicios sociales creados por la migración internacional Esta obra explora cómo las acciones e inacciones populares y políticas han complicado una política migratoria racional y consistente Invita a reevaluar los instrumentos para gestionar la migración y proteger a los refugiados The New Europe Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk, 1918 The New Europe, 1917 Citizenship Policies in the New Europe Rainer Bauböck, Bernhard Perchinig, Wiebke Sievers, 2007 Includes statistical data The Figure of the Migrant in Contemporary European Cinema Temenuga Trifonova, 2020-07-09 The Figure of the Migrant in Contemporary European Cinema explores contemporary debates around the concepts of Europe and European identity through an examination of recent European films dealing with various aspects of globalization the refugee crisis labour migration the resurgence of nationalism and ethnic violence neoliberalism post colonialism with a particular attention to the figure of the migrant and the ways in which this figure challenges us to rethink Europe and its core Enlightenment values citizenship justice ethics liberty tolerance and hospitality in a post national context of ephemerality volatility and contingency that finds people desperately looking for firmer markers of identity The book argues that a compelling case can be made for re orienting the study of contemporary European cinema around the figure of the migrant viewed both as a symbolic figure representing post national citizenship urbanization the gap between ethics and justice and as a figure occupying an increasingly central place in European cinema in general rather than only in what is usually called migrant and diasporic cinema By drawing attention to the structural and affective affinities between the experience of migrants and non migrants Europeans and non Europeans Trifonova shows that it is becoming increasingly difficult to separate stories about migration from stories about life under neoliberalism in general

Being and Becoming European in Poland Marysia H. Galbraith, 2014-06-01 Overthrowing communism in 1989 and joining the European Union in 2004 the Polish people hold loyalties to region country and now continent even as the definition of what it means to be European remains unclear Paying particular attention to those who came of age in the earliest years of the neoliberal and democratic transformations this book uses the life story narratives of rural and urban southern Poles to reveal how being European is considered a fundamental component of being Polish while participants are simultaneously becoming European Ultimately this study demonstrates how the EU is regarded as both an idea and an instrument and how ordinary citizens make choices that influence the shape of European identity and the legitimacy of its institutions

The New Europe Robert William Seton-Watson, 1917

How Migrants Choose Their Destinations Dominika Pszczółkowska, 2024-04-24 This book reveals how decisions regarding where to migrate are made what factors are considered how these change over time and why some destinations are more attractive to certain categories of people Based on rich existent and new data the book explains the destination choices of Polish migrants to the four most frequently chosen destinations countries the UK Ireland Germany and the Netherlands Examined through a sophisticated theoretical framework allowing for the incorporation of factors resulting from several fields economics public policies demography and migration theories it paints a nuanced and balanced picture of European migration This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of migration studies Central and Eastern European politics and more broadly to sociology political science social geography and international relations The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
