B-type question: 'Explain Christian teaching about the crucifixion of Jesus.'

Model answer: (This is just one way to answer and many different answers are creditworthy. What is important is the answer meets the band descriptors found on pp.153–158.)

The crucifixion is very important for Christians and is found in the Bible. The death of Jesus was part of a divine plan. Jesus was crucified on a cross with other people, but Christians believe his death was an act of atonement for the sins of the people. It was part of the process of salvation or redemption for humanity. Christians teach that the crucifixion was a fulfilment of the Old Testament prophecy in Luke's Gospel. Jesus tells his disciples that they were going to Jerusalem where everything foretold by the prophets would come true

D type question - 'Jesus was just an ordinary man.' Discuss this statement showing that you have considered more than one point of view. [You must refer to religion and belief in your answer].

Model Answer: (In order to meet the level descriptors for a Band 5 – detailed analysis; use of religious language; use of sources of wisdom; and shows an understanding of how beliefs influence individuals, communities and societies – an answer would need to include detail for four of the following points. Refer to the descriptors found on pp.153–158.)

Explanations of the six statements shown:

1. Jesus was just an ordinary man. This statement suggests that Jesus was not divine and that he was just a human being. This is a common view among some people who do not believe in the divinity of Jesus. They see him as a teacher and a moral leader, but not as the Son of God. This view is often based on a literal reading of the Bible, which describes Jesus as a man who was born, lived, and died like any other human being.
