Russell Lowell, 1930 Vols 227 230 no 2 include Stuff and nonsense v 5 6 no 8 Jan 1929 Aug 1930 René Descartes Hector Davidson, René Descartes often regarded as the father of modern philosophy revolutionized the intellectual landscape of the seventeenth century His groundbreaking ideas in mathematics metaphysics and epistemology laid the foundation for a new way of thinking challenging the dominance of Aristotelian scholasticism Born in 1596 in La Haye en Touraine France Descartes displayed an early aptitude for learning He was educated at the Jesuit College of La Flèche where he received a rigorous grounding in classical philosophy and mathematics However dissatisfied with the prevailing methods of acquiring knowledge he sought a more systematic and rational approach leading to his development of the Method of Doubt Descartes intellectual pursuits extended beyond philosophy His contributions to mathematics were equally significant particularly in the creation of Cartesian geometry which established a link between algebra and geometry through the use of coordinate planes This innovation became a cornerstone of modern mathematics and physics influencing generations of scientists His emphasis on deduction and reason over mere observation shaped the trajectory of scientific inquiry reinforcing the idea that true knowledge must be derived from fundamental principles His most famous philosophical work Meditations on First Philosophy published in 1641 sought to establish an unshakable foundation for human knowledge In this work he introduced the concept of radical skepticism questioning the reliability of sensory perception and challenging assumptions about reality Through this process he arrived at his famous conclusion Cogito ergo sum I think therefore I am which he considered the first indubitable truth From this foundation Descartes attempted to prove the existence of God and the distinction between mind and body a theory known as Cartesian dualism The Menorah Journal, 1929 The Union Seminary Review, 1929
The Journal of Higher Education, 1930 Covers topics in higher education Includes book reviews The New Era
, 1930 The Authority of Holy Scripture Charles Augustus Briggs, 1891 Metaphysics and the Future of Theology William J. Meyer, 2010 William J Meyer engages in critical and illuminating conversation with major figures in contemporary philosophy and theology in order to explain why theology has been marginalized in modern culture and why modernity has had such difficulty integrating religion and public life Wrestling with notable philosophers like MacIntyre and Stout and theologians such as Gustafson Hauerwas Porter Milbank and Reinhold Niebuhr Meyer argues that theology must embrace modernity's formal commitments to public and democratic discourse while simultaneously challenging its substantive postmetaphysical outlook Drawing on the philosophical perspectives of Whitehead and Hartshorne and the theologies of Ogden and Gamwell he concludes that a process metaphysical theology offers the most promising path for theology to regain a vital public voice in the world of the twenty first century International Journal of Ethics ,1930 Includes section Book reviews The Journal of Educational Research ,1929 The American Teacher Magazine ,1929

Metamorphosis Sarah Travis,2019-07-30 Post Christendom Christian leaders and preachers in North America struggle to respond to anxiety and despair about the future of the church Declining participation fewer resources decreased influence and confusion about pastoral and ecclesial identity lead to fear for the survival of the institutional church Preaching must speak to the despair and confusion faced by congregations today as well as cast a hopeful vision for an uncertain future This book argues that preachers can change the narrative of the church post Christendom by urging an exit from Christendom ecclesiology and promoting the construction of an identity that embraces vulnerability and incarnation instead of power and permanence Counterintuitively failure decrease and marginalization constitute good news for the church Through wide ranging conversation partners including postcolonial theory and theology social science systematic theology and homiletic literature this book engages preachers and scholars who seek to reimagine both gospel and ecclesial identity in order to bring new life to communities in despair Preachers participate in a process of metamorphosis in which the church's self understanding is transformed into a vulnerable incarnate community that leaves behind the character of Christendom
