Recovery Of American Education Reclaiming A Vision:

The Recovery of American Education Stephen M. Krason, 1991-04-15 The Transformation of the American Democratic Republic Stephen M. Krason, 2017-09-08 In this stimulating volume Stephen M Krason considers whether the Founding Fathers vision of the American democratic republic has been transformed and if so in what ways He looks to the basic principles of the Founding Fathers then discusses the changes that resulted from evolving contemporary expectations about government Referencing philosophical principles and the work of great Western thinkers Krason then explores a variety of proposals that could forge a foundation for restoration Acknowledging that any attempt to revive the Founders views on a democratic republic must start in the public sphere Krason focuses on concerned citizens who are aware of the extent to which our current political structures deviate from the Founders vision and want to take action Ultimately a democratic republic can exist be sustained and flourish only when there is a deep commitment to it in the minds and norms of its people Written by a foremost authority in the field of US Constitutional law this book will appeal to those interested in American history society and politics The Learning of Liberty Lorraine Smith Pangle, Thomas L. Pangle, 1993 This very important book is original sweeping and wise about the relation between education and liberal democracy in the United States The Pangles reconsider superior ideas from the founding period in a way that illuminates any serious thinking on American education whether policy oriented or historical American Political Science Review An important and thoughtful book stimulating for citizens as well as scholars Journal of American History Whole Education Raja Tewfik Nasr, 1994 This book suggests ways to bring about a more relevant and meaningful education for individual students and a safer happier and more dynamic life in society Recovering a Public Vision for Public Television Glenda R. Balas, 2003 In 1995 US public television faced possible elimination of federal funding potentially commercialising this type of broadcasting This study suggests that these strains have undermined public broadcasting historically the result is that programming no longer prioritises social reform The Humanities and the Future of the University University of Windsor.
