Making Scenes:

Making Scenes Iain Davidson, April Nowell, 2021-04-13 Dating back to at least 50 000 years ago rock art is one of the oldest forms of human symbolic expression Geographically it spans all the continents on Earth Scenes are common in some rock art and recent work suggests that there are some hints of expression that looks like some of the conventions of western scenic art In this unique volume examining the nature of scenes in rock art researchers examine what defines a scene what are the necessary elements of a scene and what can the evolutionary history tell us about storytelling sequential memory and cognitive evolution among ancient and living cultures

Behind the Scenes in Washington. Being a complete and graphic account of the Credit Mobilier Investigation, the congressional rings, political intrigues, working of the lobbies, etc. [With illustrations.] Edward Winslow MARTIN (pseud. [i.e. James Dabney McCabe.]), 1873 Making

Scenes Robert Brustein, 1984 The World Behind the Scenes Percy Fitzgerald, 1881 Bas Jan Ader Jan

Verwoert, 2006-05-26 An illustrated investigation into the critical motives behind the last unfinished work that has defined the romantic legacy of conceptual artist Bas Jan Ader In 1975 Bas Jan Ader disappeared at sea while trying to sail from the East Coast of the United States to Europe as part of a project titled In Search of the Miraculous Ader s considerable influence on later conceptual artists stems from the way in which he used the cool analytic and antisubjective aesthetics of conceptual art to explore experiences that would seem definitively subjective the emotional intensity of tragedy and the romantic quest for the sublime In Search of the Miraculous was conceived as a three part project a lonely nighttime walk from the hills of Los Angeles down to the sea documented in photographs the Atlantic crossing a night walk through Amsterdam mirroring the LA photographs The circumstances of his disappearance have led many interpreters to identify Ader as a person with the role of the tragic romantic hero The cult status of the artist as a hero whose work is authenticated through his death however has obscured the fact that Ader s art was a critical investigation of precisely those romantic motives his persona has now come to be identified with This book unpicks these ties in Ader s work in order to highlight the specific and unique way in which Ader explores the existential and emotional with an artistic approach that is as conceptual and analytic as it is poetic and personal Afterall Books are distributed by The MIT Press

Art or Scribbles? In the Eye of the Beholder: The Evolutionary Emergence of Visual Communication Iain Davidson, 2025-08-07 The book is about how art arose and how it became what we call art today How did art emerge from the relationships between people and the things they produce and the ideas of producers How do people manipulate those relationships in their own society How do outsiders work out the ways in which those relationships were used to make art What is art and why are all people engaged with it in one way or another From its very beginning and everywhere art has always been embedded in its cultural context the contexts of the people who made and see it and that context has often been ritual The history of art confused social and institutional changes of view because western critics or artists sought to define the boundaries of art so tightly that ritual purposeful or utilitarian works were excluded from it In their definition art only existed if the rituals of the original producers were stripped from the works or if the objects were appropriated away from the situation in which they were produced The objects stripped from their context could then only be valued for their aesthetics Art consists of relationships between people things and ideas in quite specific ways Those relationships are discussed at length in this book The book is aimed at artists art historians and archaeologists but also at the general public interested in art It is intended both for people whose interest in art comes from knowledge of the art of all continents and for those who have no knowledge
