

Joint Bride and Groom Speech

We did it! We're married. I'm Mrs X
It's taken two years to get to this day
We welcome you to our celebration
Thank you for coming - some from far away

And more thank yous, firstly to our parents
For all you have done - you're stars each of you
To the groomsmen and of course my best man
Who did their jobs well and look so good too

Thank you, bridesmaids, for being there for me
And no complaints about wearing what I said
Sincere thanks to every one of you
And please join in the dancing that's ahead

Now we come to the lovey-dovey stuff
The bit where you are all meant to say 'aaah'
But it is true when I say that XX
Means more to me than a luxury car

He is such a romantic, my husband
I will have to get used to saying that
Well, my husband, it is true when I say
That I love you more than I do my cat

You can see we share a sense of humour
But that's just a small part of what we've found
I know X is my forever soul mate
Gorgeous, clever and fun to be around

Oh my husband is now making me blush
But I love him so much it makes me ache
We'll stop now as we have a toast to do
And of course it is time to cut the cake

without saying that the Mother of the Groom has one of the most difficult jobs in the entire wedding party. Aside from the officiant and perhaps the best man, the Mother of the Groom's duties are by far the most numerous and diverse. From holding rings and coordinating with catering personnel to handling last minute fires and mingling with guests, the title of Mother of the Groom carries with it a long list of responsibilities. Chief among them is your Mother of the Groom speech. For anyone who's attended weddings before, you've probably seen the good, the bad, and the ugly. Some speakers give great speeches that energize the crowd and leave a memory that will last a lifetime. While others fumble through notes and put the audience to sleep. Worst of all is when a speaker fails so epically that they leave people feeling awkward or uncomfortable. Intentional or not, this can have a long-lasting effect that can ruin the day. Whether it's malfunctioning microphones, lost note cards, or lack of preparation, there are a million things that can go wrong during a Mother of the Groom speech. The purpose of this book is to help you navigate through the common pitfalls most Mothers of the Groom make and prepare you to give a KILLER Mother of the Groom speech. In this book, I'll teach you how to prepare, brainstorm, outline, rehearse, and execute your speech. We'll discuss all of the duties of a Mother of the Groom so you're completely prepared for the day of the wedding. This will include coordinating with the bride and groom, dress and appearance, interacting with friends and family, recording the speech, alcohol consumption, and so much more. Additionally, you'll learn the most common issues that happen during the Mother of the Groom speech and how to overcome them. Moreover, I provide an example speech at the end of the book that can be tweaked for your particular needs. Ultimately, this book will provide a Mother of the Groom with the tools, tips, tricks, and most importantly, the confidence they'll need to give a killer speech. By the end of the event, you'll walk out feeling like a hero and knowing you gave it 110%. I'm sure you're going to love this book. But don't take my word for it. Scroll up and BUY YOUR COPY TODAY.

Famous for their love affair and their letter exchange, Heloise, abbess of the Paraclete, and Abelard, monk and scholar, are less known for their ongoing monastic relationship. Abelard's letters of direction to Heloise and her nuns were complemented by the liturgical music he composed for them. This study of Abelard as musician and spiritual director underlines the importance liturgical song has in forming the virtues of obedience, penitence, and humility, as well as highlighting Abelard's mastery of rhetoric, poetry, and melody. Thomas Bell holds degrees in music and theology from Emory University, the University of North Carolina, and Duke Divinity School. He is an associate professor of religion at Brevard College in North Carolina.
