Making Time:

Making Time for Making Music Amy Nathan, 2018-04-24 This book is filled with stories from more than 350 busy adults with non musical careers who have made time to fit music making into their lives They along with dozens of music educators health care professionals and music researchers provide both inspiration and strategies for anyone who wishes to perform practice or compose music as an adult

Making Time for Digital Lives Anne Kaun, Christian Pentzold, Christine Lohmeier, 2020-09-09 It is said that the ontology of data resists slowness and also that the digital revolution promised a levelling of the playing field Both theories are examined in this timely collection of chapters looking at time in the digital world Since data has assumed such a paramount place in the modern neoliberal world contemporary concepts of time have undergone radical transformation By critically assessing the emerging initiatives of slowing down in the digital age this book investigates the role of the digital in ultimately reinforcing neo liberal temporalities It shows that both speed up and slow down imperatives often function as a form of biopolitical social control necessary to contemporary global capitalism Problematic paradoxes emerge where a successful slow down and digital detox ultimately are only successful if the individual returns to the world as a more productive labouring neoliberal subject Is there another way The chapters in this collection broken up into three parts ask that question
