SWETTENHAM, 2018 Malay Sketches Frank Athelstane Swettenham, 1913 Malay Sketches Sir Frank Athelstane Swettenham, 1895 Malay Sketches Alfian Sa'at, 2018-02 An urgent collection of short stories from one of Singapore's most celebrated voices now published in America for the first time Malay Sketches Sir Frank Athelstane Swettenham, 1891-01-01 To begin to understand the Malay you must live in his country speak his language respect his faith be interested in his interests humour his prejudices sympathise with and help him in trouble and share his pleasures and possibly his risks Only thus can you hope to win his confidence Only through that confidence can you hope to understand the inner man and this knowledge can therefore only come to those who have the opportunity and use it So far the means of studying Malays in their own country where alone they are seen in their true character have fallen to few Europeans and a very small proportion of them have shown an inclination to get to the hearts of the people There are a hundred thousand Malays in Perak and some more in other parts of the Peninsula and the white man whose interest in the race is strong enough may not only win confidence but the devotion that is ready to give life itself in the cause of friendship The Scripture says There is no greater thing than this and in the end of the nineteenth century that is a form of friendship all too rare Fortunately this is a thing you cannot buy but to gain it is worth some effort The real Malay is a short thick set well built man with straight black hair a dark brown complexion thick nose and lips and bright intelligent eyes His disposition is generally kindly his manners are polite and easy Never cringing he is reserved with strangers and suspicious though he does not show it He is courageous and trustworthy in the discharge of an undertaking but he is extravagant fond of borrowing money and very slow in repaying it He is a good talker speaks in parables quotes proverbs and wise saws has a strong sense of humour and is very fond of a good joke He takes an interest in the affairs of his neighbours and is consequently a gossip He is a Muhammadan and a fatalist but he is also very superstitious He never drinks intoxicants he is rarely an opium smoker But he is fond of gambling cock fighting and kindred sports He is by nature a sportsman catches and tames elephants is a skilful fisherman and thoroughly at home in a boat Above all things he is conservative to a degree is proud and fond of his country and his people venerates his ancient customs and traditions fears his Rajas and has a proper respect for constituted authority while he looks askance on all innovations and will resist their sudden introduction But if he has time to examine them carefully and they are not thrust upon him he is willing to be convinced of their advantage At the same time he is a good imitative learner and when he has energy and ambition enough for the task makes a good mechanic He is however lazy to a degree is without method or order of any kind knows no regularity even in the hours of his meals and considers time as of no importance His house is untidy even dirty but he bathes twice a day and is very fond of personal adornment in the shape of smart clothes A Malay is intolerant of insult or slight it is something that to him should be wiped out in blood He will brood over a real or fancied stain on his honour until he is possessed by the desire for revenge If he cannot wreak it on the offender he will strike out at the first human being that comes in his way male or female old or young It is this state of blind fury this vision of blood that produces the mok The Malay has often been called treacherous I question whether he deserves the reproach more than other men He is courteous and expects courtesy in return and he understands only one method of avenging personal insults
