Midnight Deception:

Midnight Deception Cecelia M. Latorella, 2006-03-01 Midnight Deception centers on the lives of two identical twins who are separated at birth. One Rafe is raised by his loving parents to become a simple horse trainer on a small ranch. The other Cord is raised by an abusive stepfather and becomes a selfish high living country music star. When Cord mysteriously disappears, his agent persuades Rafe to take the singer's place on a world tour. Rafe knows he must to avenge the murder of this brother he never knew but also to atone for the behavior of this man who had been so cruel, particularly to his ex-wife Mauri. This intriguing tale crosses oceans, continents, and generations, beginning with the twins' parents as young lovers fleeing a luxurious hacienda in Mexico to a small ranch in Texas. It continues through Rafe's impersonation of Cord on his tour through lush and scenic Hawaii, the wild and dry Australian outback, and the beautiful Italian villas of Florence. Rafe's adventures as Cord's imposter acquaint him not only with these new vistas but with the women Cord had romanced in all corners of the world. While not immune to these intrigues, Rafe yearns for his simple ranch life and to find Mauri, whom Rafe loved from their first meeting. But can he successfully impersonate this brother so different from him in nature? Can he bring Cord's murderer to justice and the memory of his lost brother to peace? And how can he explain that he is a very different man, a good man, to Mauri?

By day, she hides behind dowdy spectacles and drab clothes, seamlessly executing her role as the indispensable assistant to Brent Fraser, a billionaire CEO with a reputation as cold as he is brilliant. But beneath this plain facade lies a secret: by night, Sabrina transforms into Nightshade, the mesmerizing emcee at The Gilded Lily, an exclusive burlesque club. When Sabrina's son, Corey, unknowingly plunges them into peril by borrowing money from a lethal loan shark, her two worlds threaten to collide. As her son's debt triggers a series of dangerous events, Sabrina finds herself teetering on the edge of exposure and harm. With Brent unaware of her double life yet inexplicably drawn to the capable yet elusive Sabrina, tensions rise. As they navigate workplace challenges and sinister threats, Sabrina's carefully balanced secrets begin to unravel. She must rely on her own strength and Brent's unexpected protective streak to navigate a deadly cat-and-mouse game against Hans Bird and uncover a tapestry of deception that runs deadly deep. In a world where every move is a gamble and every glance could reveal the truth, Sabrina faces a heart-wrenching decision: can she trust Brent with her secrets to save her family, and will he discover her true identity before it's too late? Or will their burgeoning love be extinguished by the very shadows they're trying to escape?
