Mikael Lundberg:

History of Nordic Computing 4 Christian Gram, Per Rasmussen, Søren Duus Østergaard, 2015-05-05 This book constitutes the refereed post proceedings of the 4th IFIP WG 9.7 Conference on the History of Nordic Computing HiNC 4 held in Copenhagen Denmark in August 2014. The 37 revised full papers were carefully reviewed and selected for inclusion in this volume. The papers focus on innovative ICT milestones that transformed the Nordic societies and on the new ideas, systems and solutions that helped creating the welfare societies of today, in particular solutions and systems for public services, e.g. tax, social benefits, health care and education, solutions and systems for the infrastructure of the society, e.g. banking, insurance, telephones, transport and energy supply, and technologies and IT policies behind the major IT milestones, e.g. user-centric innovation, programming techniques and IT ethics. They are organized in topical sections on IT policy, infrastructure, public services, private services, telesystems, health care, IT in banking, transport and IT technology. No Go World Ruben Andersson, 2022-03 From the Afghan, Pakistan borderlands to the Sahara, images of danger depict a new world disorder on the global margins. With vivid detail, Ruben Andersson traverses this terrain to provide a startling new understanding of what is happening in remote danger zones. Andersson takes aim at how Western states and international organizations conduct military aid and border interventions in a dangerously myopic fashion, further disconnecting the world's rich and poor. Risk-obsessed powers are helping to remap the world into zones of insecurity and danger, resulting in a vision of chaos crashing into fortified borders. Andersson contends that we must reconnect and snap out of this dangerous spiral which affects us no matter where we are. Only by developing a new cartography of hope can we move beyond the political geography of fear that haunts us. McCranie, Larry David Wilson, Gunther Köhler, 2005 Mute Magazine - Vol 2 #8, 2008-04 This issue contains works by Thomas Campbell and Dmitry Vorobyev, John Cunningham, Harry Halpin, Stewart Martin, Benedict Seymour and Simon Yuill, with commissioned artwork by Theo Michael, John Russell and Plastique Fantastique. Conservation of Caribbean Island Herpetofaunas Volume 1: Conservation Biology and the Wider Caribbean Adrian Hailey, Byron Wilson, Julia Horrocks, 2011-04-07 Most of the islands of the Caribbean have long histories of herpetological exploration and discovery and even longer histories of human-mediated environmental degradation. Collectively they constitute a major biodiversity hotspot, a region rich in endemic species that are threatened with extinction. This two-volume series documents the existing status of herpetofaunas, including sea turtles of the Caribbean, and highlights conservation needs and efforts. Previous contributions to West Indian herpetology have focused on taxonomy, ecology and evolution, particularly of lizards. This series provides a unique and timely review of the status and conservation of all groups of amphibians and reptiles in the region. This volume introduces the issues particularly affecting Caribbean herpetofaunas and gives an overview of evolutionary and taxonomic patterns influencing their conservation. Art in Sweden Sören Engblom, 1998 Om svensk konst i 1990-erne The Eponym Dictionary of Amphibians Bo Beolens, Michael Watkins, Michael Grayson, 2013-04-22 New species of animal and plant are being discovered all the time. When this happens the new species has to be given a scientific Latin name in addition to any common vernacular name. In either case the species may be named after a person, often the discoverer, but sometimes an individual they wished to honour or perhaps were staying with at the time the discovery was made. Species names related to a person are eponyms. Many scientific names are allusive, esoteric, and even humorous, so an eponym dictionary is a valuable resource for anyone, amateur or professional, who wants to decipher the meaning and glimpse the history of a species name. Sometimes a name refers not to a person but to a fictional character or mythological figure. The Forest Stubfoot Toad Atelopus farci is named after the FARC, a Colombian guerrilla army who found refuge in the toad's habitat and thereby it is claimed protected it. Hoipollo's Bubble Nest Frog Pseudophilautus hoipolloi was named after the Greek for the many, but someone assumed the reference was to a Dr Hoipollo. Meanwhile the man who has everything will never refuse an eponym. Sting's Treefrog Dendropsophus stingi is named after the rock musician in honour of his commitment and efforts to save the rainforest. Following the success of their Eponym Dictionary of Reptiles, the authors have joined forces to give amphibians a similar treatment. They have tracked down 1,609 honoured individuals and composed for each a brief, pithy biography. In some cases these are a reminder of the courage of scientists whose dedicated research in remote locations exposed them to disease and even violent death. The eponym ensures that their memory will survive, aided by reference works such as this highly readable dictionary. Altogether 2,668 amphibians are listed.

The Venomous Reptiles of the Western Hemisphere Jonathan A. Campbell, William W. Lamar, 2004. An essential 2-volume reference for everyone interested in herpetology, professional herpetologists and their students conducting research in the classroom, at the zoo, and in the field, as well as amateurs.

Artforum International, 1999. The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, David Remnick, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 1997. We are All Normal (and We Want Our Freedom) Katya Sander, Simon Sheikh, 2001. We are all normal and we want our freedom is a collection of contemporary Nordic artists' writings. At once a mapping of and an introduction to contemporary artistic practice in the Nordic region, We are all normal also indicates the historical precedents and traditions informing this work. The purpose of this book is two-fold: to focus on thematics and thinking that have been present in the region but also internationally from an artistic rather than art-historical point of view, and to use art writing instrumentally as well as allegorically to discuss the politics and subjectivities of contemporary Nordic Post-Cold War and possibly even Post-Welfare society. If there is one particular notion seemingly prevalent in the Nordic region, it could be referred to as the confluence of welfare and freedom. Where do you find your freedoms and how be it in the wilds within a specific notion of society or internalised in the individual subject, an andhis or her organising of social surroundings. Since World War II the Nordic countries have not only epitomised welfare, freedom, democracy, and peace on the world stage but within this region, as in the rest of the West, the role of the artist has signified the ultimate free man In this context We are all normal sets out to explore a wide range of issues relevant to contemporary art and society from the Care of self to the Politics of pop Back cover
