A Hero of Our Time Mikhail Lermontov, 2019-07-18 A Hero of Our Time Russian Geroy nashego vremeni is a novel by Mikhail Lermontov written in 1839 published in 1840 and revised in 1841 It is an example of the superfluous man novel noted for its compelling Byronic hero or antihero Pechorin and for the beautiful descriptions of the Caucasus Pechorin treats women as an incentive for endless conquests and does not consider them worthy of any particular respect He considers women such as Princess Mary to be little more than pawns in his games of romantic conquest which in effect hold no meaning in his listless pursuit of pleasure

This is shown in his comment on Princess Mary I often wonder why I'm trying so hard to win the love of a girl I have no desire to seduce and whom I'd never marry The only contradiction in Pechorin's attitude to women are his genuine feelings for Vera who loves him despite and perhaps due to all his faults At the end of Princess Mary one is presented with a moment of hope as Pechorin gallops after Vera The reader almost assumes that a meaning to his existence may be attained and that

Pechorin can finally realize that true feelings are possible Yet a lifetime of superficiality and cynicism cannot be so easily eradicated and when fate intervenes and Pechorin's horse collapses he undertakes no further effort to reach his one hope of redemption

I saw how futile and senseless it was to pursue lost happiness What more did I want To see her again For what Pechorin's chronologically last adventure was first described in the book showing the events that explain his upcoming fall into depression and retreat from society resulting in his self predicted death The narrator is Maxim Maximytch telling the story of a beautiful Circassian princess Bela whom Azamat abducts for Pechorin in exchange for Kazbich's horse Maxim describes Pechorin's exemplary persistence to convince Bela to give herself sexually to him in which she with time reciprocates After living with Bela for some time Pechorin starts explicating his need for freedom which Bela starts noticing fearing he might leave her Though Bela is completely devoted to Pechorin she says she's not his slave rather a daughter of a Circassian tribal Chieftain also showing the intention of leaving if he doesn't love her Maxim's sympathy for Bela makes him question Pechorin's intentions Pechorin admits he loves her and is ready to die for her but he has a restless fancy and insatiable heart and that his life is emptier day by day He thinks his only remedy is to travel to keep his spirit alive Large
