

UNDERSTANDING RESENTMENT AND BITTERNESS

Lesson Objective:

Discover the necessity and the complexity of working through resentment

DEFINING RESENTMENT

The word resentment is best understood as having bitter indignation at being treated unfairly or unkindly. Resentment can come when you are misunderstood, neglected, rejected, slighted, and mistreated. This treatment is followed by bitterness, discontentment, and dissatisfaction. It can bring about ill will, animosity toward others, and feelings of envy and jealousy.

When we are resentful, we are not merely reviewing the facts of a slight or an argument. Instead, we re-experience and relive them in a way that affects us emotionally, physiologically, and spiritually in very destructive ways. Failure to let go of resentment will further disintegrate connections with others and damage intimate relationships. This worksheet will walk you through a ten-step process to resolve resentment and let go of the past.

WRITING YOUR STORY

The world is not fair. You may have been mistreated, misunderstood, or neglected numerous times. Spend a few moments reviewing some of the difficulties that you have experienced in the past. Give specific examples of how you have been hurt and the resulting emotions that you have felt. Relate any instances that have brought resentment, bitterness, and unforgiveness.
