

Presence Of The Past

Walter J. Ong

Presence Of The Past:

The Presence of the Past Roy Rosenzweig, David Paul Thelen, 1998 Rosenzweig and Thelen analyze results from a unique and comprehensive survey in which they polled 1 500 Americans about their connection to the past and its continuing influence on their present as well as their hopes for the future

The Presence of the Past Valerie Krips, 2002-09-11 The presence of the Past studies the interaction of heritage and fiction written for children over a 40 year period in Britain exploring a range of works for children from The Tale of Peter Rabbit to I Spy

The Presence of the Past Roy Rosenzweig, David Thelen, 1998-11-05 Some people make photo albums collect antiques or visit historic battlefields Others keep diaries plan annual family gatherings or stitch together patchwork quilts in a tradition learned from grandparents Each of us has ways of communing with the past and our reasons for doing so are as varied as our memories In a sweeping survey Roy Rosenzweig and David Thelen asked 1 500 Americans about their connection to the past and how it influences their daily lives and hopes for the future The result is a surprisingly candid series of conversations and reflections on how the past infuses the present with meaning Rosenzweig and Thelen found that people assemble their experiences into narratives that allow them to make sense of their personal histories set priorities project what might happen next and try to shape the future By using these narratives to mark change and create continuity people chart the courses of their lives A young woman from Ohio speaks of giving birth to her first child which caused her to reflect upon her parents and the ways that their example would help her to become a good mother An African American man from Georgia tells how he and his wife were drawn to each other by their shared experiences and lessons learned from growing up in the South in the 1950s Others reveal how they personalize historical events as in the case of a Massachusetts woman who traces much of her guarded attitude toward life to witnessing the assassination of John F Kennedy on television when she was a child While the past is omnipresent to Americans history as it is usually defined in textbooks leaves many people cold Rosenzweig and Thelen found that history as taught in school does not inspire a strong connection to the past And they reveal how race and ethnicity affects how Americans perceive the past while most white Americans tend to think of it as something personal African Americans and American Indians are more likely to think in terms of broadly shared experiences like slavery the Civil Rights Movement and the violation of Indian treaties Rosenzweig and Thelen s conclusions about the ways people use their personal family and national stories have profound implications for anyone involved in researching or presenting history as well as for all those who struggle to engage with the past in a meaningful way

The Presence of the Past Sheldon S. Wolin, 1989

The Presence of the Word Walter J. Ong, 2000 The deed of gift declares that the object of this foundation is not the promotion of scientific investigation and discovery but rather the assimilation and interpretation of that which has been or shall be hereafter discovered and its application to human welfare especially by the building of the truths of science and philosophy into the structure of a broadened and purified religion The founder believes that such a religion will greatly stimulate intelligent effort for the improvement of human conditions and the advancement of the race in strength and excellence of character To this end it is desired that a series of lectures given by men eminent in their respective departments on ethics the history of civilization and religion biblical research all sciences and branches of knowledge which have an important bearing on the subject all the great laws of nature especially of evolution also such interpretations of literature and sociology as are in accord with the spirit of this foundation to the end that the Christian spirit may be nurtured in the fullest light of the world s knowledge and that mankind may be helped to attain its highest possible welfare and happiness upon this earth The present work constitutes the thirty fourth volume published on this foundation
