Beautiful Twentysomethings Marek Hlasko,2013-10-01 Marek Hlasko's literary autobiography is a vivid first hand account of the life of a young writer in 1950s Poland and a fascinating portrait of the ultimately short lived rebel generation Told in a voice suffused with grit and morbid humor Hlasko's memoir was a classic of its time In it he recounts his adventures and misadventures moving swiftly from one tale to the next Like many writers of his time Hlasko also worked in screen writing and his memoir provides a glimpse into just how markedly the medium of film affected him from his very earliest writing days The memoir details his relationships with such giants of Polish culture as the filmmaker Roman Polanski and the novelist Jerzy Andrzejewski Hlasko is the most prominent example of a writer who broke free from the Socialist Realist formulae that dominated the literary scene in Poland since it fell under the influence of the Soviets He made his literary debut in 1956 and immediately became a poster boy for Polish Literature He subsequently worked at some of the most important newspapers and magazines for intellectual life in Warsaw Hlasko was sent to Paris on an official mission in 1958 but when he published in a migr Parisian press his novel of life in post War Poland he was denied a renewal of his passport In effect he was called back to Poland and when he refused to return he was stripped of his Polish citizenship He spent the rest of his life working in exile Marek Hlasko was a rebel whose writing and iconoclastic way of life became an inspiration to those of his generation and after Here in the first English translation of his literary memoir Ross Ufberg deftly renders Hlasko's wry and passionate voice

The Global Auteur Seung-hoon Jeong,Jeremi Szaniawski,2017-12-28 Once heralded and defined by the likes of Francois Truffaut and Andrew Sarris as a romantic figure of aesthetic individualism the auteur is reinvestigated here through a novel approach Bringing established as well as emergent figures of world art cinema to the fore The Global Auteur shows how politics and philosophy are present in the works of these important filmmakers They can be still seen leading a fight that their glorious predecessors seemed to have abandoned in the face of global capitalism and the market economy Yet as the contributors show a new world calls for a new cinema and thus for new auteurs Covering a range of global auteurs such as Lars von Trier Lav Diaz Lee Chang dong and Abderrahmane Sissako The Global Auteur provides a much needed reassessment of the film auteur for the global age
