Playing Dead Montana Miller, 2012-12-15 As the Grim Reaper pulls a student out of class to be a victim of drunk driving in a program called Every 15 Minutes Montana Miller observes the ritual through a folklorist's lens Playing Dead examines why hundreds of American schools and communities each year organize these mock tragedies without any national sponsorship or coordination Often the event is complete with a staged accident in the parking lot a life flight helicopter and faux eulogies for the dead students read in school assemblies Grounding her research in play theory frame theory and theory of folk drama Miller investigates key aspects of this emergent tradition paying particular attention to its unplanned elements enabled by the performance's spontaneous nature and the participants' tendency to stray from the intended frame Miller examines such variations in terms of the program as a whole analyzing its continued popularity and weighing its success as perceived by participants Her fieldwork reveals a surprising aspect of Every 15 Minutes that typical studies of ritual do not include It can be fun Playing Dead is volume two of the series Ritual Festival and Celebration edited by Jack Santino

Playing Dead Elizabeth Greenwood, 2016-08-09 A darkly comic foray into the world of men and women who fake their own deaths the consultants who help them disappear and the private investigators who'll stop at nothing to bring them back to life A delightful read for anyone tantalized by the prospect of disappearing without a trace Erik Larson New York Times bestselling author of Dead Wake Delivers all the lo-fi spy shenanigans and caught red-handed Schadenfreude you're hoping for NPR A lively romp The Boston Globe Grim fun The New York Times Brilliant topic absorbing book The Seattle Times The most literally escapist summer read you could hope for The Paris Review Is it still possible to fake your own death in the twenty-first century With six figures of student loan debt Elizabeth Greenwood was tempted to find out So off she sets on a darkly comic foray into the world of death fraud where for 30,000 a consultant can make you disappear but your suspicious insurance company might hire a private detective to dig up your coffin only to find it filled with rocks Greenwood tracks down a British man who staged a kayaking accident and then returned to live in his own house while all his neighbors thought he was dead She takes a call from Michael Jackson no he's not dead or so her new acquaintances would have her believe stalks message boards for people contemplating pseudocide and gathers intel on black market morgues in the Philippines where she may or may not obtain some fraudulent goodies of her own Along the way she learns that love is a much less common motive than money and that making your death look like a drowning virtually guarantees that you'll be caught Disappearing while hiking however is a way great to go Playing Dead is a charmingly bizarre investigation in the vein of Jon Ronson and Mary Roach into our all-too-human desire to escape from the lives we lead and the men and women desperate enough to give up their lives and their families to start again The Strad, 1905 The Budget story books Budget story books, 1894 Folklore Joseph Jacobs, Alfred Trübner Nutt, Arthur Robinson Wright, William Crooke, 1917 Most vols for 1890 contain list of members of the Folklore Society The Best Plays of ... and the Year Book of the Drama in
