Plenos Poderes:

A Companion to Pablo Neruda Jason Wilson, 2014-08 Pablo Neruda was without doubt one of the greatest poets of the twentieth century but his work is extremely uneven There is a view that there are two Nerudas an early Romantic visionary and a later Marxist populist who denied his earlier poetic self By focussing on the poet s apprenticeship and by looking closely at how Neruda created his poetic persona within his poems this Companion tries to establish what should survive of his massive output By seeing his early work as self exploration through metaphor and sound as well as through varieties of love and direct experience the Companion outlines a unity behind all the work based on voice and a public self Neruda s debt to reading and books is studied in depth and the change in poetics re examined by concentrating on the early work up to Residencia en la tierra I and II and why he wanted to become a poet Debate about quality and representativity is grounded in his Romantic thinking sensibility and sincerity Unlike a Borges or a Paz who accompanied their creative work with analytical essays Neruda distilled all his experiences into his poems which remain his true biography Jason Wilson is Professor Emeritus in the Department of Spanish and Latin American Studies University College London Obras completas Fernando de los Ríos, 1997 En los cinco volúmenes de estas Obras completas se recogen sus escritos publicados siguiendo en general un orden cronológico aunque divididos en libros y artículos En los volúmenes I y II se reproducen sus libros mientras que el III contiene los escritos breves El volumen IV recoge sus asiduas intervenciones en los periódicos El Sol y El Socialista y en la revista España mientras que el V reúne sus escritos durante la guerra civil y el exilio fundamentalmente discursos y conferencias en defensa de la República Asimismo se reproduce la compilación realizada por Luis Jiménez de la Asunción con el título Adonde va el Estado que recoge escritos de diversas épocas pero que contiene una unidad interior que no hemos querido romper Teresa Rodríguez de Lecea es responsable de la edición y autora del Estudio preliminar Es doctora en Filosofía The Law of Treaties Shabtai Rosenne, 1970 Boundary Agreements in Force Between the Argentine Republic and Chile Emilio Lamarca, 1898 Translation in Early Modern Diplomacy Vladislav Rjéoutski, Guido Braun, Indravati Félicité, Sophie Holm, 2025-12-01 This book highlights the crucial contributions of translators in shaping early modern diplomacy offering a unique lens through which to understand the growing complexity of international relations and communication in this era The early modern period was a transformative time for European diplomacy marked by the rise of resident diplomacy the advent of peace congresses and significant shifts in linguistic practices As Latin German and Italian waned as major diplomatic languages French emerged as the dominant pan European medium of diplomatic communication These changes had profound implications for translation in diplomacy shaping its role function and institutionalisation New translation departments were established and the need for trained translators became critical leading to the foundation of schools and the development of specialised practices By adopting a transnational perspective the book offers a fresh insightful exploration of the evolution of translation and its impact on the expanding network of diplomatic contacts and correspondence Bringing a panoramic and multidisciplinary approach to the history of translation this book is intended for scholars and students of the early modern period translation studies the history of diplomacy the history of languages and historical sociolinguistics and European cultural history more generally
