Making It Flow Learning From Commonwealth Experiences Water And Electricity Provision:

Making it Flow Commonwealth Foundation,2004 These nine case studies of experiences in the provision of water and electricity services from across the Commonwealth present lessons arising from different ways of providing basic infrastructure services These include privatization public sector community partnership and NGO led service provision An overview chapter sets these experiences in the broader context of current debates and issues in essential service provision It highlights some of the issues that emerge from the case studies in the areas of utility reform including pricing and subsidies the importance of community awareness and decentralization and examines some of the challenges to private provision The case studies were commissioned by the Commonwealth Foundation to expand the debate on essential service delivery and inform policy and practice with examples from experience Prepared by researchers and civil society activists from Bangladesh Canada Ghana Guyana India Papua New Guinea South Africa Trinidad and Tobago and Uganda a common thread of the case studies is concern about putting people s needs at the centre of decision making about essential service delivery and factoring in the differential effects of policies on various groups in society Handbook of Small States Lino Briguglio,2018-05-11 This handbook covers a wide spectrum of issues relating to small states Chapters in the volume have been grouped under the three main themes of economic social and environmental issues The economics sections include chapters dealing with trade finance and regulatory frameworks while the social theme covers health migration population ageing as well as overall social wellbeing The environmental theme examines matters such as measuring environmental performance natural disasters the ocean economy and the validity of the Sustainable Development Goals One major issue is the definition of small states As this volume demonstrates generally speaking population is used to measure country size in the literature However it clearly emerges that there is no real consensus as to the population cut off point that distinguishes small states from large ones While the approaches taken by the authors vary in all cases the chapters draw practical policy implications for small states The book can therefore be considered as a wide ranging depository of information on small states with the aim of deriving policy prescriptions and thus as an excellent resource for academics students and policymakers Comparative Assessment of Social Issues in Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean George K. Danna,Brenda I. Gill,2023-07-10 Using a comparative framework this edited volume evaluates pressing social issues facing African Latin American and Caribbean countries Unique in its comparative and multi regional perspective this book provides a scholastic and practical understanding on questions ranging from governance and security to poverty inequality and population health The Commonwealth Yearbook 2009 Commonwealth Secretariat,2009-06 The essential reference guide to the 53 member countries and core values of the modern Commonwealth as well as to the many partner organisations that as the Commonwealth family work together to foster co operation and collaboration across borders and between cultures Cyclones in Southern Africa Godwell Nhamo,David Chikodzi,2021-05-24 There is evidence that the world has been

witnessing more intense tropical cyclones Accompanying these tropical cyclones are heightened levels of devastation that witness the loss of human life and wildlife destruction of natural resources and property and the disruption of major economic and social activities To this end there is a growing demand for publications focusing on tropical cyclones at various levels that include regional national and local levels especially from Africa One sub region that has been witnessing the harsh realities of the increasing intensity of tropical cyclones in southern Africa However within this region countries are usually impacted at varying degrees of damage Among the countries that usually encounter the harshness of these tropical cyclones are the Comoros Botswana Madagascar Mauritius Malawi Mozambique Reunion the Seychelles South Africa and Zimbabwe From the history books the following tropical cyclones made landfall and hit southern Africa Eline 2000 Favio 2007 Dineo 2017 Idai 2019 Kenneth 2019 Eliose 2021 and Chalane 2020 Although all these tropical cyclones had negative impacts it is undoubtedly Tropical Cyclone Idai that shocked the world with its devastation mainly in Mozambique Malawi and Zimbabwe in March 2019 Key infrastructure was destroyed livelihoods were lost and the environment was degraded Thousands of people died many more were injured many remain unaccounted for and others remained homeless as of the time of finalising this book in February 2021 This book therefore focuses on the devastating impacts of Tropical Cyclone Idai in Zimbabwe The book interfaces Tropical Cyclone Idai s impacts with the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and some of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals SDGs This linkage was deliberate given that there is still time remaining until 2030 and the world has generally agreed to move into the future along the pathways of sustainable development and sustainability The book adds to the first comprehensive profiling of the impacts of tropical cyclones on southern African economies particularly that of Zimbabwe It also comes up as the first in a three volume series The other volumes to look out for are Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 2 Foundational and Fundamental Topics and Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 3 Implications for the Sustainable Development Goals To this end this book is suitable as a read for several professionals and disciplines such as tourism and hospitality studies economics sustainable development development studies environmental sciences arts geography life sciences politics planning and public health
