Morticians Apprentice:

To the Wall Daniel J. Smith, 2001-05-22 Jay Walker professional student and part time private eye Join him as he and his best friend Nick Gordon attempt to solve the disappearance of one ten year old child The search begins with Jay finding clues that the police did not or would not He calls on old friends and contacts to make sense of the kidnapping unwittingly informing all concerned that he is on the case Quickly discovering the players are indistinguishable from one another No police department is willing to help Two including the nations biggest are ready to kill in order to prevent him from finding the child and the truth behind his kidnapping and dozens more Jay Walker is a relatively ordinary guy with extraordinary friends and a never say quit attitude He thinks quickly always ready for any situation The kidnapping of one ten year old boy leads him to a dark world of corruption and murder Exposure of the people involved would rock the country right to its roots The police want to handle it their own way Jay only wants to return a child to his parents He is up against a well organized group who have friends in high places The kidnappers work to a time table Jay s time is running out Come inside and you will meet Nick Gordon cute as a button and a winning smile Yet he can not get a date no matter how hard he tries the only sure thing is he will follow Jay anywhere Kim Yuen Jay s girlfriend and lawyer Rory Farrell one of the coldest nastiest people on earth Kidnapping and murder to order Walter Rory s newest helper They usually do not last long Street cowboy an undercover agent close to Rory and in extreme danger The closer Jay gets the more dangerous it gets for this person Marshall Barton He s a cop He is officially known as the sector chief His power and influence have no title or limit His job is to control the mess that is the case that Jay has unwittingly stumbled upon His first priority is to keep a lid on this potential political bomb Next protect his undercover agent then to catch and stop Rory Farrell and the people he works for The hardest part is that the people that are pulling Rory s strings may be the same as the ones pulling his Crazy Bobby Melanie Serge Thad Think Mitch Spider and many others interact to make this book earn the title Action Packed
