Playing With Mum:

Playing with Mum Carla Dijs, 1999-02-28 A pop up book showing how difficult it is for a piglet to get mother pig's attention when she is busy and piglet wants to play games

The Shared Space of Play Francesca Berti, 2023-07-10 The similarities between traditional games in different regions of the world from past to present arouse both awe and curiosity. The playful yet educational discovery of these practices offers the opportunity to observe the experience of play as a space for similarities between cultures. When research on play conducted with children is enriched by the recollections of play from parents and grandparents especially in the context of a multicultural classroom a choral narrative emerges laying down the basis for intercultural education. Children discover the shared space of play where they can meet and relish together with teachers the richness of cultural diversity and also learn more about prejudice and Othering processes

Slang and Its Analogues Past and Present William Ernest Henley, 1896

Our Grand Finale Laraine Denny Burrell, 2017-10-17 Laraine Burrell gets the call to come back to England from the United States just in time to visit briefly with her father before he passes away. Following his death she is overcome with grief feeling that she has squandered the time she had with her father. Instead of staying close she chose to travel the world and seek her own goals as a young woman always thinking there would be time later on to tell her dad all the things she wanted to tell him how much she loved him and how he was her hero. Now she realizes it's too late. Wanting to do something significant for her father to make up for her neglect Burrell reflects on the fascinating life her father a Royal Yachtsman led and decides that the one thing she can do for him is to tell his exceptional life story and make sure he is not forgotten. Our Grand Finale is the culmination of that effort an exploration of both the author's and her father's unusual life experiences and a reminder that later doesn't always come
