Plump Woman:

Russia • Women • Culture Helena Goscilo, Beth Holmgren, 1996-05-22 This volume examines areas of cultural production that have offered Russian women new freedoms since the nineteenth century. Key aspects of Russian culture that have been systematically ignored are foregrounded here: Russian women's development of popular culture and their ingenious reinventions of high literature. The essays analyze women's creativity of every type, their products, performances, and collaborative exchanges in sites that range from the bathhouse to the ballroom.
