centuries of Baptist doctrinal history Acknowledging first the pre 1609 roots patristic medieval and Reformational of Baptist theology it examines the Arminian versus Calvinist issues that were first expressed by the General Baptists and the Particular Baptists that dominated English and American Baptist theology during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries from Helwys and Smyth and from Bunyan and Kiffin to Gill Fuller Backus and Boyce and that were quickened by the awakenings and the missionary movement Concurrently there were the Baptist defense of the Baptist distinctives vis a vis the pedobaptist world and the unfolding of a strong Baptist confessional tradition Then during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the liberal versus evangelical issues became dominant with Hovey Strong Rauschenbusch and Henry in the North and Mullins Conner Hobbs and Criswell in the South even as a distinctive Baptist Landmarkism developed the discipline of biblical theology was practiced and a structured ecumenism was pursued Missiology both impacted Baptist theology and took it to all the continents where it became increasingly indigenous Conscious that Baptists belong to the free churches and to the believers churches a new generation of Baptist theologians at the advent of the twenty first century appears somewhat more Calvinist than Arminian and decidedly more evangelical than liberal

What the Victorians Made of Romanticism Tom Mole,2017-10-17 This insightful and elegantly written book examines how the popular media of the Victorian era sustained and transformed the reputations of Romantic writers Tom Mole provides a new reception history of Lord Byron Felicia Hemans Sir Walter Scott Percy Bysshe Shelley and William Wordsworth one that moves beyond the punctual historicism of much recent criticism and the narrow horizons of previous reception histories He attends instead to the material artifacts and cultural practices that remediated Romantic writers and their works amid shifting understandings of history memory and media Mole scrutinizes Victorian efforts to canonize and commodify Romantic writers in a changed media ecology He shows how illustrated books renovated Romantic writing how preachers incorporated irreligious Romantics into their sermons how new statues and memorials integrated Romantic writers into an emerging national pantheon and how anthologies mediated their works to new generations This ambitious study investigates a wide range of material objects Victorians made in response to Romantic writing such as photographs postcards books and collectibles that in turn remade the public s understanding of Romantic writers Shedding new light on how Romantic authors were posthumously recruited to address later cultural concerns What the Victorians Made of Romanticism reveals new histories of appropriation remediation and renewal that resonate in our own moment of media change when once again the cultural products of the past seem in danger of being forgotten if they are not reimagined for new audiences
