Rabbinic Creativity in the Modern Middle East Tsevi Zohar, Zvi Zohar, 2013-08-22 An exploration of central aspects of Sephardic Mizrahi rabbinic creativity in the Middle East Iraq Syria and Egypt from 1850 to 1950 Year Book of the Central Conference of American Rabbis Central Conference of American Rabbis, 1920 Containing the proceedings of the convention Yearbook of the Central Conference of American Rabbis Central Conference of American Rabbis, 1891 Containing the proceedings of the convention Rabbinic Creativity in the Modern Middle East Zvi Zohar, 2013-06-20 Rabbinic Creativity in the Modern Middle East provides a window for readers of English around the world into hitherto almost inaccessible halakhic and ideational writings expressing major aspects of the cultural intellectual creativity of Sephardic Oriental rabbis in modern times The text has three sections Iraq Syria and Egypt and each section discusses a range of original sources that reflect and represent the creativity of major rabbinic figures in these countries The contents of the writings of these Sephardic rabbis challenge many commonly held views regarding Judaism's responses to modern challenges By bringing an additional non Western voice into the intellectual arena this book enriches the field of contemporary discussions regarding the present and future of Judaism In addition it focuses attention on the fact that not only was Judaism a Middle Eastern phenomenon for most of its existence but that also in recent centuries important and interesting aspects of Judaism developed in the Middle East Both Jews and non Jews will be enriched and challenged by this non Eurocentric view of modern Judaic creativity The Baghdadi Jews in India Shalva Weil, 2019-06-28 This book explores the extraordinary differentiation of the Baghdadi Jewish community over time during their sojourn in India from the end of the eighteenth century until their dispersion to Indian diasporas in Israel and English speaking countries throughout the world after India gained independence in 1947 Chapters on schools institutions and culture present how Baghdadis in India managed to maintain their communities by negotiating multiple identities in a stratified and complex society Several disciplinary perspectives are utilized to explore the super diversity of the Baghdadis and the ways in which they successfully adapted to new situations during the Raj while retaining particular traditions and modifying and incorporating others Providing a comprehensive overview of this community the contributions to the book show that the legacy of the Baghdadi Jews lives on for Indians today through landmarks and monuments in Mumbai Pune and Kolkata and for Jews through memories woven by members of the community residing in diverse diasporas Offering refreshing historical perspectives on the colonial period in India this book will be of interest to those studying South Asian Studies Diaspora and Ethnic Studies Sociology History Jewish Studies and Asian Religion The Rabbi's Girls Johanna Hurwitz, 2014-06-30 Moving to a new town the birth of a sister and the death of her rabbi father make 1923 a bittersweet year for eleven year old Carrie Levin Based on the real life story of author Johanna Hurwitz's mother Rabbi, Have I Got a Girl for You! Herb Freed, 2005-02-14 Alternately hilarious and heartrending Rabbi Have I Got a Girl for You follows the earnest if occasionally misguided exploits of young Rabbi Ben Zelig as he valiantly tries to balance the sometimes tragic and often bewildering demands of his calling. Each of the six stories takes a unique stylistic twist. One of the most riveting episodes centers on the Rabbi's desperate search to recapture his lost faith. His quest leads him into encounters with outrageous characters who lead him on a bizarre adventure that starts in the ivory tower of The Rabbinical Academy, winds its way through Harlem strip clubs, and ends in the Garden of Eden.

Religious Traditions and Personal Stories Uta Blohm, 2005. Women in roles of religious leadership represent a relatively new phenomenon within Judaism and Christianity and to some extent a break with traditional assumptions. The study gives insight into how women are defining themselves as religious leaders and women within the context of patriarchal religion. The research is based on 50 qualitative interviews with women rabbis, Anglican priests, and other Christian ministers. Some of the issues discussed concerning role, ordination, and tradition are unrelated to gender. Christian interviewees describe their journeys into the ministry or priesthood predominantly as experiences of vocation, whereas rabbis choose the rabbinate out of an interest in Jewish studies and in the role itself. With regard to gender, women across the religious divide are facing opposition and are dealing with similar religious questions of inclusive language or the impact of traditional female roles.
