Afro-Cuban Identity in Post-Revolutionary Novel and Film Andrea E. Morris, 2012 Afro Cuban Identity in Post Revolutionary Novel and Film examines the changing discourse on race as portrayed in Cuban novels and films produced after 1959 Andrea Easley Morris analyzes the artists participation in and questioning of the revolutionary government s revision of national identity to include the unique experience and contributions of Cuban men and women of African descent While the Cuban revolution brought sweeping changes that vastly improved the material condition of many Afro Cubans at the time overrepresented among Cuba s poor and marginalized the government s official position was that racial inequities had been resolved as early as 1962 Although a more open dialogue on race was cut short the work of several novelists and film directors from the late 1960s and 70s expresses the need to explore what was gained and lost by Afro Cubans in the early years of the revolution among them Manuel Granados Miguel Barnet Nivaria Tejera Sara Gomez Cesar Leante Tomas Gutierrez Alea Sergio Giral and Manuel Cofi o Their works participate in the process of redefining Cuban national identity that took place after the revolution and more specifically they explore the place of Afro Cuban identity within a broader notion of revolutionary Cubanness This occurs through an emphasis on Afro Cuban cultural practices that have constituted forms of resistance to colonial and neo colonial oppression This book examines the identity conflicts portrayed in these works and takes into account the artists negotiation of their own status within the revolutionary context by looking at the narrative strategies used to address racial issues within the constraints placed on cultural production in Cuba after 1962 Rachel's Share of the Road ... Kate Waterman Hamilton, 1882 African Founders David Hackett Fischer, 2022-05-31 In this sweeping foundational work Pulitzer Prize winning historian David Hackett Fischer draws on extensive research to show how enslaved Africans and their descendants enlarged American ideas of freedom in varying ways in different regions of the early United States African Founders explores the little known history of how enslaved people from different regions of Africa interacted with colonists of European origins to create new regional cultures in the colonial United States The Africans brought with them linguistic skills novel techniques of animal husbandry and farming and generations old ethical principles among other attributes This startling history reveals how much our country was shaped by these African influences in its early years producing a new distinctly American culture Drawing on decades of research some of it in western Africa Fischer recreates the diverse regional life that shaped the early American republic He shows that there were varieties of slavery in America and varieties of new American culture from Puritan New England to Dutch New York Quaker Pennsylvania cavalier Virginia coastal Carolina and Louisiana and Texas This landmark work of history will transform our understanding of America s
