Commemoration in America David Gobel, Daves Rossell, 2013-09-03 Commemoration lies at the poetic historiographic and social heart of human community It is how societies define themselves and is central to the institution of the city Addressing the complex ways that monuments in the United States have been imagined created and perceived from the colonial period to the present Commemoration in America is a wide ranging volume that focuses on the role of remembrance and memorialization in American urban life The volume s contributors are drawn from a spectrum of disciplines social and urban history urban planning architecture art history preservation and architectural history and take a broad view of commemoration In addition to the making of traditional monuments the essays explore such commemorative acts as building preservation biography portraiture ritual performance street naming and the planting of trees Providing an overview of American memorialization and the impulses behind it Commemoration in America emphasizes a universal tendency for individuals and groups to use monuments to define their contemporary social identity and to construct historical narratives The volume shows that while commemorative acts and objects affect the community in fundamental ways their meaning is always multivalent and conflicted attesting to both triumphs and tragedies Constituting a vital part of both individual and national identity commemoration s contradictions strike at the core of American identity and speak to the importance of remembrance in the construction of our diverse national cultural landscape Contributors Jhennifer A Amundson Judson University Catherine W Bishir North Carolina State University Libraries Thomas J Campanella University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Glenn T Eskew Georgia State University Glenn Forley Parsons The New School for Design Sally Greene University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Alison K Hoagland Michigan Technological University Lynne Horiuchi University of California Berkeley Ellen M Litwicki SUNY Fredonia David Lowenthal University College London Mark A Peterson University of California Berkeley Richard M Sommer University of Toronto Dell Upton University of California Los Angeles
