D.,2011-06-16 Share My Steps is a journey through life in poetic expression The Open Boundary of History and Fiction Suzanne Gearhart,2019-02-19 Challenging the view that a critical sense of history is missing from the Enlightenment Suzanne Gearhart links the works of Voltaire Montesquieu Diderot and Rosseau with the inquiry into the boundary between literature and history in contemporary critical discourse She considers the theories of Levi Strauss Foucault Althusser Genette White de Man and Derrida in order to develop a critical approach to fiction and history and to reveal that investigations into the foundations of historical knowledge and specifically into what distinguishes history from fiction were central to the Enlightenment This book questions many assumptions basic to contemporary criticism by establishing a dialogue between major theorists and Enlightenment figures It challenges certitudes of fiction and literature by examining the historicity of language form and literature itself redefining history to show its crucial relevance to literary studies and opening historiography to the insights of literary theory Suzanne Gearhart is Associate Professor of Literature at the University of California San Diego Originally published in 1984 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press
