Mystical Monotheism John Peter Kenney, 2010-12-01 In this engaging and provocative study John Peter Kenney examines the emergence of monotheism within Greco Roman philosophical theology by tracing the changing character of ancient realism from Plato through Plotinus Besides acknowledging the philosophical and theological significance of such ancient thinkers as Plutarch Numenius Alcinoos and Atticus he demonstrates the central importance of Plotinus in clarifying the relation of the intelligible world to divinity Kenney focuses especially on Plotinus's novel concept of deity arguing that it constitutes a type of mystical monotheism based upon an ultimate and inclusive divine One beyond description or discursive knowledge Presenting difficult material with grace and clarity Kenney takes a wide ranging view of the development of ancient Platonic theology from a philosophical perspective and synthesizes familiar elements in a new way His is a revisionist thesis with significant implications for the study of Greco Roman Jewish and Christian thought in this period and for the history of Western religious thought in general

Truthfulness, Realism, Historicity Peter Turner, 2016-02-17 Were holy men historical figures or figments of the theological imagination Did the biographies devoted to them reflect facts or only the ideological commitments of their authors For decades scholars of late antiquity have wrestled with these questions when analysing such issues as the Christianization of Europe the decline of paganism and the rise of the holy man and of the hagiographical genre In this book Peter Turner suggests a new approach to these problems through an examination of a wide range of spiritual narrative texts from the third to the sixth centuries A D pagan philosophical biographies Greek and Latin Christian saints lives and autobiographical works by authors such as Julian and Augustine Rather than scrutinizing these works for either historical facts or religious and intellectual attitudes he argues that a deeper historicity can be found only in the interplay between these types of information On the textual level this analysis recognises the genuine commitment of spiritual authors to write truthfully and to record realistically a world felt to be replete with spiritual and symbolic meaning On the historical level it argues that holy men expecting the same symbolism within their own lives adopted lifestyles which ultimately provoked and confirmed this world view Such praxis is detectable not only in the holy men who inspired biography but also in the period s scattered autobiographical writings As much a historical as a textual phenomenon this spiritually minded scrutiny of the world created interpretations which were always open and contested Therefore this book also associates spiritual narrative texts with only one possible voice of religious experience in a constant dialogue between believers opponents and the sceptical undecided

Cosmology and Fate in Gnosticism and Graeco-Roman Antiquity Nicola F. Denzey,2013-04-09 In Cosmology and Fate in Gnosticism and Graeco Roman Antiquity Nicola Denzey Lewis dismisses Hans Jonas mischaracterization of second century Gnosticism as a philosophically oriented religious movement built on the perception of the cosmos as negative or enslaving A focused study on the concept of astrological fate in Gnostic writings including the Apocryphon of John the recently discovered Gospel of Judas Trimorphic Protennoia and the Pistis Sophia this book reexamines their language of enslavement to fate Gk heimarmene from its origins in Greek Stoicism its deployment by the apostle Paul to its later use by a variety of second century intellectuals both Christian and non Christian Denzey Lewis thus offers an informed and revisionist conceptual map of the ancient cosmos its influence and all those who claimed to be free of its potentially pernicious effects Annual Bibliography of Indian Archaeology ,1928 Late Antique Portraits and Early Christian Icons Andrew Paterson,2022-06-30 This book focuses on the earliest surviving Christian icons dated to the sixth and seventh centuries which bear many resemblances to three other well established genres of sacred portrait also produced during late antiquity namely Roman imperial portraiture Graeco Egyptian funerary portraiture and panel paintings depicting non Christian deities Andrew Paterson addresses two fundamental questions about devotional portraiture both Christian and non Christian in the late antique period Firstly how did artists visualise and construct these images of divine or sanctified figures And secondly how did their intended viewers look at respond to and even interact with these images Paterson argues that a key factor of many of these portrait images is the emphasis given to the depicted gaze which invites an intensified form of personal encounter with the portrait s subject The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history theology religion and classical studies
