Marketing Identities:

Marketing Identities David A. Brenner, 2018-02-05 A study of the first Jewish magazine to explore ethnic identity in early twentieth century Germany Marketing Identities analyzes how Ost und West East and West the first Jewish magazine 1901 1923 published in Berlin by westernized Jews originally from Eastern Europe promoted ethnic identity to Jewish audiences in Germany and throughout the world Using sophisticated techniques of modern marketing such as stereotyping the editors of this highly successful journal attempted to forge a minority consciousness Marketing Identities is thus about the beginnings of ethnicity as we know it in the late twentieth century An interdisciplinary study Marketing Identities illuminates present day discussions in Europe and the Americas regarding the experience and self understanding of minority groups and combines media and cultural studies with German and Jewish history

Marketing Identities Through Language E. Martin, 2005-11-30 Elizabeth Martin explores the impact of globalization on the language of French advertising showing that English and global imagery play an important role in tailoring global campaigns to the French market with media companies undeterred by the attempts through legislation to curb language mixing in the media

Understanding Branding in Higher Education Anthony Lowrie, 2017-10-25 This book provides a critical theory of branding in higher education The author argues for a higher education for all and positions higher education as a human right necessary for the well being of citizens and democracy Firstly the book introduces the concept of desire as an underpinning for brand theory The author then uses an explication of the concept of relevance linked with desire to further our understanding of higher education as an emancipatory project Chapter 4 explores brand identity which is shown to be a retroactive investment of naming Mathemes are used to illustrate the theory of naming in identity formation Finally the author also examines the idea of the liberal arts and provides an ethnographic and critical discourse analysis of the liberal arts college

Marketing in a Multicultural World Janeen Arnold Costa, Gary J. Bamossy, 1995-04-05 The book appears pertinent in the context of the emerging potpourri of cultures today It makes for useful reading reminding you as it does of the seriousness of the incessant cultural and ethnic changes taking place all around Business India This eclectic collection probably represents the best examples of research currently available and is a fascinating pioneering exploration of an important field of study Choice Exploring cultural identity and its impact on marketing Marketing in a Multicultural World breaks new ground by synthesizing research analyzing trends assessing data and defining and describing culture and cultural identity in its various manifestations Chapters discuss perspectives on ethnicity nationalism and cultural identity globalization as a social and economic phenomenon and strategies used by ethnic groups in Europe and North America to establish their place in the dominant cultures and economic systems Adding to the wealth of information presented are case studies on the Italian Canadian home current Romanian consumption patterns Turkish Germans niche in Berlin s fast food market cross border shopping in Northern Ireland marketing and consumption of traditional ethnic crafts in India and Mexico and the marketing of cultural
