RELIGION HIGHLIGHTS

| CONFUCIANISM | |
| Profile of Believers | Followers focus on moral cultivation, social harmony, and filial respect. Common in China, Korea, Japan, and Vietnam. Practiced by both scholars and laypeople as a philosophy and ethical way of life. |
| Place and Time of Origin, Founder | Originated in China (6th century BCE) during the Zhou dynasty. Founded by Confucius (Kong Qiu/Kong Fuzi), a teacher and moral philosopher. |
| Sacred Texts | The Analects (Lunyu), Five Classics, and Four Books compiled by Confucius and his disciples. |
| Cosmology (World View) | Believes in Tian (Heaven) as the moral order governing the universe. Harmony is achieved by aligning human virtue with Heaven's principles. |
| Theology (Supreme Being) | No personal god; reveres Heaven (Tian) and ancestors as moral and spiritual forces guiding life. |
| Anthropology (Meaning of Life) | Human purpose is self-cultivation and fulfillment of moral duties through the Five Key Relationships to create a harmonious society. |
| Soteriology (Afterlife) | Emphasis on immortality through legacy being remembered by descendants for virtue and filial duty rather than focusing on the afterlife. |
| Symbolism (Major rituals and places of worship) | Rituals (Li) express respect and social order: ancestral worship, Confucius' Birthday rites, and state ceremonies. Temples (Wenmiao) serve as centers of education and veneration. |
| Morality (Code of Conduct) | Guided by Five Virtues: Ren (benevolence), Yi (righteousness), Li (propriety), Zhi (wisdom), Xin (sincerity). The Golden Rule: "Do not do to others what you do not wish for yourself." |
| Organization (Leadership and Authority) | Led by scholars, teachers, and officials. The Sangha equivalent is the learned community preserving teachings and rituals. |
| Religious Experience | Practiced through rituals, filial piety, and education that connect moral discipline with daily life. |
| Spirituality | Rooted in virtue, respect, harmony, and lifelong learning to achieve moral perfection and societal peace. |

Searching Practices Beliefs Of The Rel:

In Search of Radical Theology John D. Caputo, 2020-10-06 These sparkling essays from a seasoned scholar are a great breath of fresh air in our claustrophobic and catastrophic time Cornel West Capturing a career's worth of thought and erudition this rich volume treats readers to creative thought careful argumentation and sophisticated analysis transmitted through the lucid accessible prose that has earned the author a wide readership of academics and non academics alike In tackling radical theology John D Caputo has in mind the deeper stream that courses its way through various historical and confessional theologies upon which these theologies draw even while it disturbs them from within They are well served by this disturbance because it keeps them on their toes When we read about professional theologians losing their jobs in confessional institutions the chances are that by earnestly digging into what is going on in their tradition they have hit upon radical theological rock Unlike modernist dismissals of religion radical theology does not debunk but re-invents the theological tradition Radical theology Caputo says is a double deconstruction of supernatural theology on the one hand and of transcendental reason on the other and therefore of the settled distinctions between the religious and the secular Caputo also addresses the challenge for radical theology to earn a spot in the curriculum given that the radical makes it suspect among the confessional seminaries while the theology renders it suspect among university seminars Journeying from the academy to contemporary American culture In Search of Radical Theology includes a captivating presentation of radical political theology for the time of Trump This utterly unique volume not only brings readers on an enlightening tour of Caputo's thought but also invites us to accompany the author as he travels into intriguing new territories Civil Society and the Search for Justice in Russia Christopher Marsh, Nikolas K. Gvosdev, 2002-01-01 More than a decade has passed since path breaking policies aimed at liberalizing post Soviet society were first introduced in Russia Today these promises of freedom equality and justice remain largely unfulfilled and Russia's political system continues to exhibit signs of the deep rooted problems that may well retard if not completely derail any possibility of future reform Against this stark background Civil Society and the Search for Justice in Russia explores the various dimensions of Russia's civil society the meaning of and search for justice the role of the Orthodox church as a principal unifier in civil society the need for new freedoms for women and ethnic minorities and the role of mass education and the free press in inculcating and articulating new civic values Expertly blending the historical with the theoretical the recent with the empirical this work offers new insight and analysis into the ability of a nascent Russian civil society to engage effectively with the twenty first century Russian state to ensure social religious and political justice Handbook of the Sociology of Religion Michele Dillon, 2003-08-18 Table of contents The adventures of a Protestant in search of a religion Iota pseud, 1873 Spirit of Religion Anab Whitehouse, 2018-11-06 The current volume explores a variety of topical themes within the general field of religion defined as the search for the truth concerning the nature of one's relationship with Being Reality Among the topics explored are Evolution the origins of faith conceptual viruses suffering irreligion the new atheism nihilism sacredness the nature of the self mythology Carl Jung Joseph Campbell free will epistemology and spiritual abuse All of the foregoing topics are critically examined against a backdrop that helps orient the discussion More specifically most human beings wonder in one way or another about the nature of reality that is they seek to deal as best they can with the reality problem The Final Jeopardy challenge refers to the task of trying to work toward providing a best effort final response to the reality problem that resonates with and reflects to varying degrees the character of reality before the sands in the hourglass of time run out in a person's life

Religion, Science, and the Search for Wisdom David M. Byers, 1987 Where religious belief and scientific belief formerly stood in direct conflict to the point even of being mutually exclusive one now sees promise for a new compatibility perhaps even harmony from back cover

Mission in Context: In Search of Asian Strategic Communication of the Gospel Thang Deih Lian Davidlianno, 2018-05-09 There is a profusion of missional issues emerging in the Asian fields that call Christ's followers to actively witnessing the Truth Missionaries from different continents have come to serve the Asian nations and yet these God's loving missionaries effectiveness often seem to have left in the shade by some damaging fruits and sometimes being too much of Westernness stemming from a diversity of lacking knowledge particularly the local contexts to contextualize and lack of preparation The irrefutable finding is appealing within the Asian mission study in regard to the essentiality in equipping the Christians so that the ministries in Asia will experience the effectiveness in cultivating the diverse contexts cultures with the text Scripture they have Many principles and practical information from this book grew out of the authors experiences and the reflection of Missiologists and scholars such as Andrew Walls Christopher Wright Kazoh Kitamori Paul Hiebert etc

Selected Readings in the Anthropology of Religion Stephen D. Glazier, Charles A. Flowerday, 2003-12-30 Brings together in one volume a number of key theoretical and methodological advances in the anthropological study of religion Chapters cover important topics not ordinarily included in books dealing with the anthropology of religion e.g bipedalism the study of alcohol film and video images notions of religious agency In addition this collection is intended to build bridges between anthropologists of religion and religious studies scholars Over the last four decades anthropologists have grappled with the dialectical relationship between the examination of cultures from the emic or insider perspective and the etic or outsider perspective Nowhere is this creative tension more evident than in the anthropological study of religion In this volume anthropologists and religious studies scholars come to terms not only with a landscape that has shifted fundamentally but a landscape that is still shifting Essays in this collection raise new and important issues for the anthropological study of religion in new and important ways In intensely personal essays a number of contributors address two fundamental concerns in the study of religion 1 how should anthropologists deal with the beliefs and practices of others and 2 how should anthropologists deal with their own religious backgrounds and beliefs as these may affect their understanding of the beliefs and practices of others A partial resolution to both questions is necessary before the
