

12 LOCAL SEO STRATEGIES FOR SMALL BUSINESSES

1 Optimize GBP

Google Business Profile is the best tool that can be used to scale up your business.

1

2

2 Social Media Presence

Google considers having a presence on social media very important in terms of building relevance and online visibility.

3

3 NAP should be consistent

The name, address, and phone number should be exact and accurate.

4

4 Optimize for Citations and Directories

If the search engine does not see the similarity in the profiles created across directories and citation sites, then your business will not likely show up in search results.

5

5 Do a local SEO Audit

Instead of performing trial and error tactics to see what's working, it is better to do a local SEO audit.

6

6 Internal Linking

Internal linking is an essential part of SEO. Just like external linking, internal linking will help you with website navigation, and site hierarchy and also pass on page authority over the pages.

7

7 Optimize On-Page SEO

Every time you create new content for your website you will have to make sure that you tick boxes for all the metrics for On-Page SEO on your checklist.

8

8 Add Location Pages to your Website

You can create pages wherein you can target location-specific users. You can include your Name, Address, and phone number along with store pictures and testimonials.

9

9 Create Local Content

Writing about general topics on your niche can generate traffic, but it is always better to include local content to generate leads and increase ROI.

10

10 Make sure your website is mobile-friendly

Making your website mobile-friendly will improve the user experience and them staying and converting into customers.

11

11 Inbound Links with Relevancy and Authority

Inbound links can benefit local SEO. The inbound links tell Google that your website is relevant and will also your domain authority.

12

12 Engage with the local community

The more you engage with the local community, the more you will improve the brand presence. Sponsoring an event or appearing in the local media can get you inbound links.
