Memory In Dispute:

Memory in Dispute Valerie Sinason, The Memory Wars Frederick C. Crews, 1997 This volume contains two essays by Frederick Crews attacking Freudian psychoanalysis and its aftermath in the so called recovered memory movement The first essay reviews a growing body of evidence indicating that Freud doctored his data and manipulated his colleagues in an effort to consolidate a cult life following that would neither defy nor upstage him The second essay challenges the scientific and therapeutic claims of the rapidly growing recovered memory movement maintaining that its social effects have been devastating

Disputed Memory Tea Sindbæk Andersen, Barbara Törnquist-Plewa, 2016-06-20 The world wars genocides and extremist ideologies of the 20th century are remembered very differently across Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe resulting sometimes in fierce memory disputes This book investigates the complexity and contention of the layers of memory of the troubled 20th century in the region Written by an international group of scholars from a diversity of disciplines the chapters approach memory disputes in methodologically innovative ways studying representations and negotiations of disputed pasts in different media including monuments museum exhibitions individual and political discourse and electronic social media Analyzing memory disputes in various local national and transnational contexts the chapters demonstrate the political power and social impact of painful and disputed memories The book brings new insights into current memory disputes in Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe It contributes to the understanding of processes of memory transmission and negotiation across borders and cultures in Europe emphasizing the interconnectedness of memory with emotions mediation and politics

The Culture of Dissenting Memory Véronique Tadjo, 2019-03-18 This volume deals with the manifold ways in which histories are debated and indeed historicity and historiography themselves are interrogated via the narrative modes of the truth commissions It traces the various medial responses memoirs fiction poetry film art which have emerged in the wake of the truth commissions The 1990s and the 2000s saw a spate of so called truth commissions across the Global South From the inaugural truth commissions in post juntas 1980s Latin America to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission set up by the incoming post apartheid government in South Africa and the twinned gacaca courts and National Unity and Reconciliation Commission in Rwanda and that in indigenous Australia various truth commissions have sought to lay bare human rights abuses The chapters in this volume explore how truth commissions crystallized a long tradition of dissenting and resisting cultures of memorialization in the public sphere across the Global South and provided a significant template for contemporary attempts to work through episodes of violence and oppression across the region Drawing on studies from Latin America Africa Asia and Australia this book illuminates the modes in which societies remember and negotiate with traumatic pasts This book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of human rights popular culture and art literature media politics and history

Current Controversies in Philosophy of Memory André Sant'Anna, Christopher Jude McCarroll, Kourken Michaelian, 2022-07-29 The surge of philosophical interest in episodic memory has brought to light a number of controversial questions about this form of memory that have only recently begun to be addressed in detail This book organises discussion around six such questions offering two new chapters per question from experts in the field The questions are I What is the relationship between memory and imagination II Do memory traces have content III What is the nature of mnemonic confabulation IV What is the function of episodic memory V Do non human animals have episodic memory VI Does episodic memory give us knowledge of the past The book constitutes a valuable resource for researchers teachers and students alike For researchers it provides an up to date discussion of some of the main theories arguments and problems in the area For teachers the book can supply the readings for an entire course or particular sections can provide the readings for specific units within a broader philosophy of memory course For students the book offers accessible discussions of some of the most recent topics in the philosophy of memory which when taken together serve as a well rounded introduction to the area
