

Memos, Minutes of Meetings

Memos - A written communication used within a business to provide information, updates, policies, or instructions to staff members are called internal memos, also known as Memorandums. They tend to be specific and concise, intended to convey particular information in an understandable and straightforward way. Memorandums are essential tools for internal communication and can be distributed in hard copy or digital format.

- A person in a high position will typically send a memo to the subordinates.

On the other hand, memorandums are sometimes delivered to people of the same rank. The phrase "memo for" should be used in this case rather than "memo to".

Types of Memorandum

Memorandum for requests. This document does a favor. Do not demand or decree. Start immediately with the request and the reason for it, and end your document politely by stating the deadline for such a request and the reason behind the deadline.

Memorandum that responds. This is used when you respond to the previous document according to the order of the original request. Use boldface headings to emphasize or clarify groupings. Close politely by making an assurance that you are willing to be at service again.

Memorandum that informs is used to state, explain, or clarify a policy, issue, or others. should be concise and clear.

TO: All staff
FROM: Nina Wilson, CEO
SUBJECT: Office is closed next week for renovations

From Monday through Friday next week, our office will be closed due to renovations taking place.

Due to your feedback, we have decided it's time to update our office space. We will be updating our security systems by adding CCTV and adding a secure door with a passcode. Also, the ventilation system will be replaced to help with the summer heat. Additionally, new, comfortable office chairs have been ordered for all staff and are expected to arrive early next week.

Please clear your desks and other parts of the office of all personal belongings by the end of this week to make the process easier for everyone.

Next week we are going full-remote, so plan accordingly. You're expected to be available from 9 to 5, but you can organize your time differently if you see fit.

If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact me.

Thank you,
Nina Wilson
