

JESUS THE GREATEST VOL. 2

By Pastor Glenn Pease

In volume one we looked at how the Book of Hebrews exalted Jesus as the greatest in every category in the first few verses. In this volume we want to see that this is the theme of the whole book, and all the way through Jesus is exalted as the greatest. Jesus is never just great along with many other great persons. He is always the greatest in every way, and everything surrounding His being and His deeds is the greatest.

Everyone agrees that Jesus is the prophet, priest and king in Hebrews, and this means that he sums up the whole revelation of God. But the fact is, we hear more about Jesus being the priest and king than we do about Him being the prophet of God. I have to confess that in 34 years of preaching I never dealt with this subject, and I do not recall ever reading a message on Jesus as a prophet. It is not a popular theme, but it is more significant than we realize. Hebrews begins by saying that the prophets were the spokesmen for God in the past, and that Jesus is the final spokesman of God in these last days. He is the final and the ultimate prophet, for He speaks God's final answer to man.

God told Moses, who is considered the greatest prophet in Judaism, that He would send another prophet like him, and Christians have always considered this as a reference to
