Melancholy Acts Nouri Gana, 2023-08-01 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE How do the literatures and cultures of oppressed societies survive and flourish in spite of the overdetermining conditions of precarity and injustice of which they are a product and against which they protest Might the symptom of oppression become simultaneously the agent of its critique Melancholy Acts offers richly nuanced reflections on these questions through a series of wide ranging engagements with Arab thought literature and film in the aftermath of the 1948 dispossession of Palestinians and the 1967 military defeat of Arab armies Melancholy Acts offers a psychoaffective theory of cultural production that arises out of the disjunction between political impoverishment and cultural resistance to colonial and neoliberal oppression Such a theory allows the author to trace the melancholy disposition of Arabic literary and filmic productions and to discern the precarious rhetorical modes of their critical intervention in a culture that is continually strained to its breaking point Across six chapters Melancholy Acts reads with rigor and sensitivity contentious topics of Arab contemporaneity such as secular modernity and manhood Arab nationalism and leftism literary and artistic commitment Islamism and martyrdom The book tracks the melancholy politics that inform the literary and cultural projects of a multitude of Arab novelists Ghassan Kanafani and Naguib Mahfouz poets and playwrights Mahmoud Darwish Nizar Qabbani and Saadallah Wannous filmmakers Nouri Bouzid Moufida Tlatli Youssef Chahine and Hany Abu Assad alongside the work of such intellectuals as Hussein Muruwwa Malek Bennabi Karima Lazali George Tarabishi and Fethi Benslama from within the Arab world as well as such non Arab thinkers as Freud Lacan Adorno Fanon Spivak Butler and i ek Melancholy Acts charts a fresh and bold new approach to Arabic and comparative literature that combines in interlaced simultaneity a high sensitivity to local idioms as they swerve between symptom and critique with nuanced knowledge of the geopolitics of theory and psychoanalysis

Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective Anna Ball, 2012-11-27 Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective is the first sustained study of gender consciousness in the Palestinian creative imagination Drawing on concepts from postcolonial feminist theory Ball analyses a range of literary and filmic works by major creative practitioners including Michel Khleifi Liana Badr Annemarie Jacir Elia Suleiman Mona Hatoum and Suheir Hammad and reveals a hitherto unrecognized trajectory in gender consciousness under development in the Palestinian imagination from the start of the twentieth century The book explores how these works resonate with questions of power identity nation resistance and self representation in the Palestinian imagination more broadly and asks how these gender conscious narratives transform our understanding of Palestine s struggle for postcoloniality Working at the cusp of postcolonial feminist and cultural enquiry Ball seeks to open up vital new directions in the interdisciplinary study of Palestine history Geneva Cobb Moore deftly combines literature history criticism and theory in Maternal Metaphors of Power in African American Women's Literature by offering insight into the historical black experience from slavery to freedom as depicted in the literature of nine female writers across several centuries Moore traces black women writers creation of feminine and maternal metaphors of power in literature from the colonial era work of Phillis Wheatley to the postmodern efforts of Paule Marshall Alice Walker and Toni Morrison Through their characters Moore shows how these writers re-created the identity of black women and challenge existing rules shaping their subordinate status and behavior Drawing on feminist psychoanalytic and other social science theory Moore examines the maternal iconography and counter hegemonic narratives by which these writers responded to oppressive conventions of race gender and authority Moore grounds her account in studies of Wheatley Harriet Jacobs Charlotte Forten Grimké Jessie Fauset Nella Larsen and Zora Neale Hurston All these authors she contends wrote against invisibility and powerlessness by developing and cultivating a personal voice and an individual story of vulnerability nurturing capacity and agency that confounded prevailing notions of race and gender and called into question moral reform In these nine writers construction of feminine images real and symbolic Moore finds a shared sense of the historically significant role of black women in the liberation struggle during slavery the Jim Crow period and beyond A foreword is offered by Andrew Billingsley a pioneering sociologist and a leading scholar in African American studies

Walled Life Jenny Stümer, 2022-02-24

Going beyond a discussion of political architecture Walled Life investigates the mediation of material and imagined border walls through cinema and art practices The book reads political walls as more than physical obstruction instead treating the wall as an affective screen capable of negotiating the messy feelings personal conflicts and haunting legacies that make up walled life as an evolving signpost in the current global border regime By exploring the wall as an emotional and visceral presence the book shows that if we read political walls as forms of affective media they become legible not simply as shields impositions or monuments but as projective surfaces that negotiate the interaction of psychological barriers with political structures through cinema art and of course the wall itself Drawing on the Berlin Wall the West Bank Separation barrier and the U S Mexico border Walled Life discovers each wall through the films and artworks it has inspired examining a wide array of graffiti murals art installations movies photography and paintings Remediating the silent barriers we erect between and often within ourselves these interventions tell us about the political fantasies and traumatic histories that undergird the politics of walls as they rework the affective settings of political boundaries

Night Passages Elisabeth Bronfen, 2013-09-10

In the beginning was the night All light shapes language and subjective consciousness as well as the world and art depicting them emerged from this formless chaos In fantasy we seek to return to this original darkness Particularly in literature visual representations and film the night resiliently resurfaces from the margins of the knowable acting as a stage and state of mind in which exceptional perceptions discoveries and decisions play out Elisabeth Bronfen investigates the nocturnal spaces in which extraordinary events unfold and casts a critical eye into the darkness that enables the irrational exploration of desire transformation ecstasy transgression spiritual illumination and moral choice She begins with an analysis of classical myths depicting the creation of the world and then moves through night scenes in Shakespeare and Milton Gothic novels and novellas Hegel s romantic philosophy and Freud s psychoanalysis Bronfen also demonstrates how modern works of literature and film particularly film noir can convey that piece of night the modern subject carries within From Mozart s Queen of the Night to Virginia Woolf s oscillation between day and night life and death and chaos and aesthetic form Bronfen renders something visible conceivable and comprehensible from the dark realms of the unknown
