Random Access 2 Pavel Büchler, Nikos Papastergiadis, 1996 Is culture in crisis Are the political conditions of modern creative work transforming contemporary culture What anxieties and desires define modern art Random Access 2 poses these and other questions on art practice and cultural developments and considers the relationship between practice and criticism in contemporary culture Essays from celebrated artists and thinkers cover topics ranging from criminality among the British urban poor to art teaching art as memory interpretation of dance to the death of Bohemia Mapping the Megalopolis Glen David Kuecker, Alejandro Puga, 2017-12-22 Mapping the Megalopolis Order and Disorder in Mexico City brings the humanities and the social sciences into a conversation about Mexico City in its social political and aesthetic manifestations Through a shared exploration of the order and disorder that mutually constitute the city contributing authors engage topics such as the privatization of public space challenges to existing conceptualizations of the urban form and variations on the fl neur and other urban actors Mexico City is truly a city of versions and Mapping the Megalopolis celebrates the intersection of the image of the city and the lived experience of it Readers will find substantive entries on a great variety of Mexico City s monumental and counter monumental spaces as well as some of its pivotal contemporary debates and cultural products The volume serves both as supplemental reading on the world city or the Latin American city and as a central text in a multidisciplinary study of Mexico City Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Stephen Morton, 2003-09-02 Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak offers an overtly political challenge to the way we think about literature and culture As she highlights the many legacies of colonialism she re defines the ethical horizons of contemporary critical thought This volume focuses on her key theoretical concepts intellectual context and critical reception providing an accessible introduction to one of the most important thinkers of our time Stephen Morton introduces Spivak s crucial work through an analysis of such issues as methodology and Spivak s difficult style deconstructive strategies third world women the concept of the subaltern and the critique of western feminism re reading Marx for the global capitalist era Spivak s contribution to colonial discourse studies and postcolonial theory Having examined the ways in which Spivak has transformed contemporary cultural theory and in particular feminist and postcolonial thought Morton concludes with a guide to reading Spivak s work and that of her critics Essential for students of literature or cultural studies this volume is the ideal companion for a first encounter with Spivak s remarkable texts Public Art (Now) Claire Doherty, 2015-03-09 Public Art Now Out of Time Out of Place is the first survey of progressive public art from around the world It presents some of the most significant artworks in the public realm from the last decade challenging preconceptions about where when and how public art takes place The face of public art is changing For decades art in the public realm has been characterized by the landmark sculpture or spectacular outdoor event that helps to define or brand a place But in recent years a new wave of international artists and producers has rejected the monumental scale and mass appeal of such artworks Instead these individuals and groups favour unconventional forms that unsettle rather than authenticate a place's identity disrupt rather than embellish a particular location and contest rather than validate the design and function of public space Performed interactions collaborative social movements and small scale subversive acts are just some of the unorthodox approaches taken by these artists Their works challenge preconceived ideas about the role of art in place making as they seek to remake places through radical forms and practices Public Art Now Out of Time Out of Place presents the artists who have been redefining the practice of public art over the past decade They directly address the most pressing issues of our time including the encroachment of corporate concerns on public space the implications of global migration and the isolation of the individual and the potential of collective action to share the future of our towns and cities Some forty key works from around the world are organized into five sections Displacement Intervention Disorientation Occupation and Perpetuation with detailed descriptions and dozens of installation and process shots Interviews and quotes from practitioners commissioners and commentators reveal the impetus and context for the projects while the editor's introduction sets out the conceptual practical and ethical issues raised by the works Bringing together the most significant artworks in the public realm of the last ten years from ephemeral interventions to long term ongoing projects this dynamic survey is an essential reference for anyone interested in the ideas issues and impulses behind progressive public art and an accessible introduction to one of the most vibrant areas of contemporary art

The Diagrams of Architecture Mark Garcia, 2010-03 Since the 1980s the diagram has become a preferred method for researching communicating theorising and making architectural designs ideas and projects Thus the rise of the diagram as opposed to the model or the drawing is the one of the most significant new developments in the process of design in the late 20th and early 21st centuries. Diagrams of Architecture is the first anthology to represent through texts and diagrams the histories, theories, and futures of architecture through the diagram. Spanning the Pre-historic to the Parametric, Diagrams of Architecture illustrates over 250 diagrams and brings together 26 previously published and newly commissioned essays from leading international academics, architects, theorists, and professional experts. These combine to define the past and future of the diagram's discourse. Prefaced with a critical introduction by Mark Garcia, each text investigates a central concept or dimension of the diagram, ranging from socio-cultural studies, science, philosophy, technology, CAD/CAM, computing, and cyberspace, and virtual/digital design, to methodology, environment, sustainability, and phenomenological, poetic, and art architecture, as well as interior, urban, engineering, interactive, and landscape design. The first critical, multidisciplinary book on the history, theory, and futures of the architectural diagram, it includes seminal articles on the diagram from the history and theory of architecture, such as those by Peter Eisenman, Sanford Kwinter, MVRDV, Neil Spiller, Lars Spuybroek, UN Studio, and Anthony Vidler. Features 14 newly commissioned articles by leading architects and theorists, including Charles Jencks, Hanif Kara, Patrik Schumacher, Neil Spiller, Leon van Schaik, and Alejandro Zaera Polo, and two new interviews with Will Alsop and Bernard Tschumi. Includes a full-colour critical collection of over 250 of the most significant and original diagrams, many of which are previously unpublished in the history of architecture from around the world.

Keats-Shelley Review, 1986 Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998 Art Journal, 1960 Creative Camera, 1997 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 1996 Design City Melbourne, Leon van Schaik, 2006-05-26. Melbourne is now coming to the fore as a design hotspot. With three and a half million inhabitants, it is on a scale that is livable and diverse. Its rich and varied cultural intimacy has enabled it to build up a unique dynamism which is set to shift the entire design agenda of the world, much like Barcelona did in the 1980s and Antwerp did in the 1990s. Melbourne is to be the city of the noughties. The intense plurality of Melbourne's recent design culture is due to have a vast impact on the way in which we think about city regions and living in them. This is a story of wonderful spaces in civic and institutional buildings, in galleries, bars, clubs, and restaurants, in one of the world's tallest residential apartment buildings, in beach houses and mountain shacks, in workshops and studios, and in international sports venues. As Melbourne hosts the Commonwealth Games in 2006, a vast influx of visitors will be experiencing these spaces for the first time. Through lush photography and an accessible text, Design City Melbourne is devised not only to illustrate a wide range of fascinating interiors and their architectural matrices but also to describe the people behind them and how these spaces support the vital culture of this uniquely mixed and cosmopolitan city A metropolis that is situated in the same time zone as China and which is pioneering in its European colonial matrix the admixture of new Asian urban forms
