Meanings of the Names of People and Places in the Old Testament Pat Crossin,2019-10-21 All scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine for reproof for correction for instruction in righteousness that the man of God may be perfect thoroughly furnished unto all good works 2 Timothy 3 16-17 This book contains not only a look at the meanings of people and places of the Old Testament but also a brief look at who the people were in that they really did live In most cases showing they had family and were a son or a daughter a brother or sister the father or mother of a person The book also tells where the places were and even in the meanings of their names there is great significance For every person and place written in the Bible there is a specific reason whether for the meaning of the name of a person as in the name Adam man red earth or in the name of a place as in Bethel house of God It will be very enlightening and edifying to see and understand their significance as this book is used as a study help The reader will also see while using this reference book that the contents of this book make looking at the meaning of the names easier And one will see more clearly that the mystery of God and his plan for his people can be found in the names of the children of Israel Christ in you the only hope of glory This is just one of the many treasures that is found while looking at the names of the priests and kings of Israel and Judah Whether a scholar or a layman there are many treasures to be found in studying the scriptures and I believe this reference book will be a blessing to anyone as an aid in searching out the hidden gems of the Word of God The Lord bless you The Archetype of Shadow in a Split World Mary Ann Mattoon,1987 The Tenth International Congress for Analytical Psychology was held in West Berlin September 2 9 1987 Its theme The Archetype of Shadow in a Split World was the focus of twenty five major papers with prepared responses to fourteen of them Congress participants were several hundred Jungian analysts from around the world The theme has a special meaning for our times and especially for a Congress set in the divided city of Berlin There the Wall is a vivid reminder of East West divisions and of the countless divisions among humans Many of these divisions are considered in this book Some of the papers deal with the collective background of the Congress and its participant s lives Other papers focus more on intra psychic and inter personal divisions as they are manifested clinically Deborah Rising Avraham Azrieli,2016-09-27 In the tradition of The Red Tent The Fifth Mountain and The Mists of Avalon comes this absorbing historical novel that reimagines the life of one of the Bible s most revered women the prophetess Deborah and her epic journey to fulfill her destiny Deborah s father dreamed that his daughter would one day become a prophet of the God of the Israelites But the social and religious mores of her time dictated that a woman must marry even against her will and obey her husband When Deborah is forced into an engagement with the violent son of her local judge the young Hebrew woman rebels determined to forge a new path Captivated by the notion of transforming herself into a man to escape the arranged marriage and fulfill her father s dream Deborah embarks upon an epic journey across the desert to find a mysterious elixirist rumored to be blessed with the gift of turning women into men It is a journey that proves increasingly perilous filled with wild beasts lustful men unscrupulous priests and warring tribesmen Yet Deborah discovers that she is not alone an unlikely coterie of lepers slaves Moabite traders and even a dead tiger come to her aid and defense along the way Part traditional biblical fiction part adventure Deborah Rising is a captivating tale about the early life of one of the most famous figures from the Old Testament a woman of courage and spirit whose battle to overcome discrimination sexism and paternalism speaks to women s lives today Birkat Shalom Chaim Cohen,Victor Avigdor Hurowitz,Avi M. Hurvitz,Yochanan Muffs,Baruch J. Schwartz,Jeffrey H. Tigay,2008-06-30 This magnificent volume is a compilation of the writings of friends colleagues and former students in tribute to Shalom Paul Professor Emeritus and former Chair of the Bible Department at The Hebrew University of Jerusalem More than 60 essayists contribute new ideas in the areas of research most loved by Prof Paul such as biblical literature and criticism prophecy comparative exegesis and linguistics ancient Near Eastern historical and cultural milieus and biblical and Mesopotamian law Contributors include scholars of renown such as Adele Berlin Frank Moore Cross William G Dever Michael V Fox William W Hallo Sara Japhet Andr Lemaire Carol Meyers Jacob Milgrom Elisha Qimron Gary A Rendsburg Jack M Sasson Shemaryahu Talmon Emanuel Tov James C VanderKam Joan Goodnick Westenholz and Ziony Zevit Sea Glass Gilda Frantz,2014-10-18 Sea Glass A

Jungian Analyst's Exploration of Suffering and Individuation explores experiences many of us encounter in the course of a lifetime including those of early childhood. As we mature we can begin to become aware that suffering when made conscious can lead us on a path toward higher consciousness toward the experience of wholeness or individuation. The examples related in this book are told as a storyteller might and include the all too human experiences of loneliness, loss, shame, abandonment, aging, disenfranchisement, working with dreams, dealing with the opposites, striving to find one's creativity and relationship issues. Now in her mid-eighties, Gilda Frantz shares with us what she has learned from life and from being a Jungian analyst. She has written a feeling, intuitive, wise woman's shorter version of her own Memories, Dreams, Reflections. Personal insights links essays on subjects drawn from her life and work; there is poignancy and an affirmation of indomitable spirit in her musings. She knows first hand about difficult childhoods, early widowhood, aging, death of a beloved grandchild, and closeness to the end of life. She knows about suffering and the creativity and soul growth that can go hand in hand. These are themes in her own life and in her observations of others. Sea Glass is an apt metaphor for this book to discover why requires reading it. Jean Shinoda Bolen, M.D., author of Goddesses in Everywoman, Goddesses in Older Women, and Close to the Bone. You could be listening to the storyteller by the fire or to your favorite aunt at the kitchen table, the one who always makes you laugh so vital and engaging is the narrative voice in Sea Glass. In fact, you are reading the gathered writings of Gilda Frantz, a beloved Jungian elder in the classical tradition. Frantz is on intimate terms with the gods and their myths. She has personal experience of alchemy, individuation, dreams, and the creative process, all of which she describes in accessible and lively language. Sea Glass sparkles with gems including Frantz's interview with the film director Fellini and her amplification of the story of Pinocchio. Like the sea glass for which she names her book, Frantz has had a difficult life, been thrown about on waves of fortune, battered on the rocks of childhood poverty, parental divorce, early widowhood, and the death of a son and granddaughter. Her wit and wisdom has been polished to a fine glow. She is eloquent in her reflections on the meaning of suffering. Sea Glass is most luminous when addressing the toughest topics: loneliness, grief, abandonment, aging, and death. It is a comfort and an inspiration, strong medicine for the soul. Naomi Ruth Lowinsky, Author of The Sister from Below, When the Muse Gets Her Way, and The Motherline: Every Woman's Journey to Find Her Female Roots. Interrogating Interstices Andrew Hock-soon Ng, 2007. This study attempts to multiculturalise the Gothic by reading a wide selection of Postcolonial Asian and Asian American narratives in light of familiar Gothic tropes such as the uncanny, the double spectres, and the sublime. Discussing some of the more important concepts in postcolonialism such as subjectivity, belonging, hybridity, and nationalism, the author argues that the trajectory of the postcolonial and diasporic experience is fraught with profound moments of trauma, loss, and transgression which the aesthetics of the Gothic can illuminate. Throughout the study, a careful balance is maintained between deploying Gothic criticism and emphasising the narrative's cultural, historical, and ideological specificity to ensure that a textual form of colonial imposition does not occur. Writings by well-known authors such as Rushdie

Roy Ondaatje and Mukherjee and lesser known ones such as Lan Samantha Chang K S Maniam and Beth Yahp are analysed
