Raquel Forner , Raquel Forner Robertson Galleries,1974 Exhibition of Paintings by Raquel Forner Raquel Forner,Herbert Read,Drian Galleries (London),1967 Artists from Latin American Cultures Kristin G. Congdon,Kara Kelley Hallmark,2002-10-30 Latin Americans have long been relegated to the cultural background obscured by the dominant European culture This biographical dictionary profiles 75 artists from the United States and 13 nations of Central and South America and the Caribbean including painters sculptors photographers muralists printmakers installation artists and performance artists Some of their works recall pre Columbian times others confront the cultural imperialism of the U S over Latin America and many explore how the dominant elements of culture can affect identities of class gender and sexuality Profiled artists range from the renowned to the little known Frida Kahlo Tina Modotti Diego Rivera Myrna Baez Raquel Forner Patrocino Barela and many more Color photographs are provided for many of the works Each entry includes information about the artist s childhood schooling creative growth and artistic styles and themes Exemplary artworks and influences are described along with a look at popular and critical responses Supplemental features include artist cross references a glossary of essential terms from the art world and a number of vivid photos portraying the artists in their creative environments Women, Religion and Culture in Spain and Latin America, 1900-2000 Ricki O'Rawe,Eamon McCarthy,2026-03-13 This volume offers a close reading of cultural objects produced in the Spanish speaking world during the twentieth century to show how women working across continents countries and traditions make manifest the complex and multiple ways religion continues to be relevant in their lives Contributors look beyond the sociology of religion to literary and art history In each chapter a story is told of the many crossings made between religion and cultural practices their acts of creation on the borders of tradition religious literary artistic societal create spaces where new constellations of spiritual identity can be formed away from the watchful gaze of institutions prone to restricting religious expression that deviates from established doctrine A key feature is the focus on varying modes of cultural production Essays cover literary and visual art philosophical thought music and cinema offering insight into the power and pervasiveness of religiosity in works created by women in Spain and Latin America This volume shows that any attempt to characterise broad trends in religion across the twentieth century should include an account of the ways in which the performance of religious devotion metamorphosed outside the dominant paradigm even as its place at the centre of society was diminishing Arts - Therapies - Communication European Arts Therapy Line Kossolapow,Sarah Scoble,2005 Stipulation of a present actual position of Art Therapy however inevitably leads to further thoughts about ongoing development Everything required for the theoretical practical founding of a European Art Therapy as discipline still has to be done including construction of a communicative bridge to partners in other continents or countries This development work has two strands of development One follows a more theoretical direction with European Art Therapy as a research and teaching subject as an objective in view The other is directed more towards practical fieldwork which in turn can lead to the establishment of funds of experience as well as quantitative and qualitative investigations and thus to theoretical methodical statements In the contributions on hand both connections pervade Naturally the individual articles in this collection do not fully expound the volume of art therapeutic work throughout Europe but they are a source of information and inspiration for the user from theory and or practice who can then find his particular niche with his own specific interests within the cross section and subsequently continue the discourse spatially and objectively
