Instructors Manual Tina Miracle, Andrew Miracle, Baumeisters, 2003-04-03 Arranging Marriage Marian Aguiar, 2018-01-02 The first critical analysis of contemporary arranged marriage among South Asians in a global context Arranged marriage is an institution of global fascination an object of curiosity revulsion outrage and even envy Marian Aguiar provides the first sustained analysis of arranged marriage as a transnational cultural phenomenon revealing how its meaning has been continuously reinvented within the South Asian diaspora of Britain the United States and Canada Aguiar identifies and analyzes representations of arranged marriage in an interdisciplinary set of texts from literary fiction and Bollywood films to digital and print media to contemporary law and policy on forced marriage Aguiar interprets depictions of South Asian arranged marriage to show we are in a moment of conjugal globalization identifying how narratives about arranged marriage bear upon questions of consent agency state power and national belonging Aguiar argues that these discourses illuminate deep divisions in the processes of globalization constructed on a fault line between individualist and collectivist agency and in the process critiques neoliberal celebrations of culture as choice that attempt to bridge that separation Aguiar advocates situating arranged marriage discourses within their social and material contexts so as to see past reductive notions of culture and grasp the global forces mediating increasingly polarized visions of agency

Yemen Chronicle Steven C. Caton, 2006-10-03 A report like no other from the heart of the Arab Middle East In 1979 Steven C Caton went to a remote area of Yemen to do fieldwork on the famous oral poetry of its tribes The recent hostage crisis in Iran made life perilous for a young American in the Middle East worse he was soon embroiled in a dangerous local conflict Yemen Chronicle is Caton s touchingly candid account of the extraordinary events that ensued One day a neighboring sheikh came angrily to the sanctuary village where Caton lived claiming that a man there had abducted his daughter and another girl This was cause for war and even though the culprit was captured and mediation efforts launched tribal hostilities simmered for months A man who was helping to resolve the dispute befriended Caton showing him how the poems recited by the belligerents were connected to larger Arab conflicts and giving him refuge when the sanctuary was attacked Then unexpectedly Caton himself was arrested and jailed for being an American spy It was 2001 before Caton could return to Yemen to untangle the story of why he had been imprisoned and what had happened to the missing girls Placing his contradictory experiences in their full context Yemen Chronicle is not only an invaluable assessment of classical ethnographic procedures but also a profound meditation on the political cultural and sexual components of modern Arab culture TV Guide ,2000 Married Life in the Middle Ages, 900-1300 Elisabeth van Houts,2019-02-06 Married Life in the Middle Ages 900 1300 contains an analysis of the experience of married life by men and women in Christian medieval Europe c 900 1300 The study focusses on the social and emotional life of the married couple rather than on the institutional history of marriage breaking it into three parts Getting Married the process of getting married and wedding celebrations Married Life the married life of lay couples and clergy their sexuality and any remarriage and Alternative Living which explores concubinage and polygyny as well as the single life in contrast to monogamous sexual unions In this volume van Houts deals with four central themes First the tension between patriarchal family strategies and the individual family member s freedom of choice to marry and if so to what partner second the role played by the married priesthood in their quest to have individual agency and self determination accepted in their own lives in the face of the growing imposition of clerical celibacy third the role played by women in helping society accept some degree of gender equality and self determination to marry and in shaping the norms for married life incorporating these principles fourth the role played by emotion in the establishment of marriage and in married life at a time when sexual and spiritual love feature prominently in medieval literature
