Out Of Chaos Refounding Religious Congregations:

Out of Chaos Gerald A. Arbuckle, 1988 Fundamentalism at Home and Abroad Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2017 For most people fundamentalism in the modern world has become synonymous with a radical form of Islam but fundamentalism in many shapes and forms is also very much present in Western societies Yes fundamentalist economic political nationalistic and religious movements are aplenty in the West Using the lens of cultural anthropology Gerald A Arbuckle examines fundamentalist attitudes and movements in this book exploring why they arise and how readers can constructively respond to them Spiritan Life and Mission Since Vatican II William Cleary, 2018-02-01 The Second Vatican Council 1962-65 called for the renewal of all religious institutes in the Catholic Church The Congregation of the Holy Spirit Spiritans responded initially under the leadership of Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre Different interpretations of Vatican II caused divisions culminating in Lefebvre's departure from the congregation From this difficult starting point the Spiritans sought to redefine themselves in creative fidelity to their founding intention the spirit of Vatican II and the signs of the times Spiritan Life and Mission since Vatican II recounts this journey of renewal in three parts the Spiritan world before Vatican II and the election of Archbishop Lefebvre as superior general in 1962 the ad experimentum period culminating with a new rule of life in 1986 and the implementation of this new rule as interpreted through inter congregational discourse particularly the general chapters of 1992 1998 and 2004 The development of thinking on the church's mission and the congregation's rediscovery of the founding charisms of Claude Poullart des Places and Francis Libermann provide the parameters for this positive interpretation of the Spiritan journey of renewal Its evolution in the third millennium into a multicultural international missionary community of some three thousand members from over sixty countries in service of the Missio Dei bears testimony to this Culture, Inculturation, and Theologians Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2010-09-01 The split between the Gospel and culture is without doubt the drama of our time wrote Paul VI in 1975 Since that time there has been an increasingly urgent awareness that inculturation is an indispensable task of the church But inculturation the dialogue between church and cultures demands first of all that we who would enter into the dialogue understand what culture itself means and what dialogue entails To that end cultural anthropologist Father Gerald Arbuckle gives us this important volume He traces the history of the development of the concept of culture and the too often negative rarely positive effects of encounters between church and culture He explores how Jesus Christ approached the cultures of his time and outlines the current treatment of culture and inculturation in church documents and in Catholic theology He shows that modest progress in understanding has recently stalled and there are even forces working to turn that progress into regress He concludes with a description of inculturation as it needs to happen and a sharp critique of those who resist With a sense of prophetic hope Arbuckle seeks to help us bridge the lamentable split between Gospel and culture the drama that continues to unfold in our time Violence, Society, and the Church Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2004 The reality of violence and the fear it generates is constantly in the news Terrorist attacks across the world and other abuses of power such as the sexual abuses in the Catholic Church the continuance of patriarchalism racism and the negative effects of globalization highlight the relevance of this book Here the author uniquely explains these forms of violence in the wider context of their cultural roots Religious Congregations in Irish Education Conference of Religious of Ireland. Education Commission,1997

Confronting the Demon Gerald A. Arbuckle,2003

Bullying is not something confined to school children It is a widespread abuse found in families workplaces organizations including churches and beyond Confronting the Demon focuses on the nature and types of contemporary bullying and what the Christian Scriptures advise to prevent it Bullying is a quality of most forms of violence including racial religious and sex based discrimination sexual physical and psychological abuse persecution and terrorism This book focuses on such contemporary examples as the 2001 terrorist attacks hate crimes around the world sexual abuse particularly among the churches and cultures which promote bullying Questions at the end of each chapter help people examine their own vulnerability to the vice of bullying and relate the context of its nature meaning and power to their own lives Chapters are Adult Bullying Definition and Types Bullies and Victims Cultures of Bullying and A Gospel Response Gerald A Arbuckle SM PhD is the co director of Refounding and Pastoral Research Unit Sydney Australia He is the author of From Chaos to Mission Refounding Religious Life Formation Healthcare Ministry Refounding the Mission in Tumultuous Times and Violence Society and the Church published by Liturgical Press

Laughing with God Gerald A. Arbuckle,2015-03-15 When Sarah overhears God tell Abraham that she will give birth to a son she laughs She laughs to herself at the impossibility of her in her old age bearing a child Gen 18 12 But God s ways are not Sarah s ways God is far more wonderful than Sarah imagines Of course Sarah does give birth to a son and names him Isaac whose name means to laugh God has brought laughter for me everyone who hears will laugh with me Gen 21 6 Surely the ancient audience aware of the many incongruities in this story did laugh But can we in modern times recover the divine humor the paradox and promise in this and other biblical accounts Can we use that sacred laughter as a means to evangelize a world that longs for God every bit as much as the ancients did In Laughing with God Humor Culture and Transformation Catholic priest and cultural anthropologist Gerald Arbuckle helps us do just that With Arbuckle readers will enter many rich biblical stories and come away laughing not laughter as in response to a joke or comedy but a profound laughter of the heart Readers will laugh at Sarah as she laughs at God and they will laugh together with Sarah and God Readers will discover divine humor in the parables of Jesus and even in his suffering and death the ultimate paradox for Christians In addition to uncovering and recovering humor in Scripture Arbuckle s work is a treasure trove of modern examples of humor from literature movies and television that surprisingly can be a means of transforming cultures to better reflect the kingdom of God In the end readers will want to turn the phrase He who laughs last laughs best into They who laugh with God evangelize best Gerald A Arbuckle SM PhD is co director of Refounding and Pastoral Development a research ministry in Sydney Australia He is internationally known for his expertise in helping church leaders minister effectively in a postmodern world Arbuckle s most recent books include Confronting the Demon A Gospel Response to Adult Bullying Violence Society and the Church A Cultural Approach and Healthcare Ministry Refounding the Mission in Tumultuous Times 2001 Catholic Press Association Award all published by Liturgical Press

Imagining the Catholic Church Ghislain Lafont,2000 Father Lafont challenges the Church to offer a renewed image and to speak credibly without abandoning any essentials given by God to the Church and without sacrificing the radicalism of the Gospel message

Pathways to Re-creating Religious Communities Patricia Wittberg,1996 Religious life has always been an essential and dynamic component of the church Religious communities historically have met the needs of the surrounding society in education the arts medical care and social work But why do we need religious communities now What purpose do they serve within the church and within society Patricia Wittberg offers some practical and prophetic answers There are four basic questions that a religious community must answer if it is to survive and grow in the twenty first century What is our fundamental reason for existing as a community What distinguishes members from non members How will we live out our fundamental purpose in daily life What resources do we need and where can they be found Using the metaphor of a journey this book suggests ways of addressing these questions based on studies of other religious communities past and present Catholic and those of other religions The author also identifies pitfalls that commonly deter new communities and suggests how these pitfalls may be avoided Included is a selection of journey stories that present some fictional founding and refounding journeys these can serve as starting points for brainstorming by religious communities interested in refounding themselves This is a hopeful popularly written book that will appeal not only to all religious but to general readers as well since it has great importance for the life of the entire church

Religious Life Cassian J. Yuhaus,1994 The chapters in this book were originally talks given at the 25th International Institute for Religious which brought together a group of creative people to reflect on whether religious life has any future and what shape it might take The contributors to this book offer a variety of approaches that suggest the old ways of life are dead while the new ones are coming into focus

From Chaos To Mission Gerald A. Arbuckle,1996-01-10 Formation is a rite of passage or initiation ritual This book draws on the findings of social anthropological studies of initiation rituals and contemporary biblical studies of rites of passage Since initiation rituals are of critical importance in the life journeys of individuals and groups the book s central theme is relevant to educationalists and ritual leaders in the Church and secular society Most religious congregations founded since the thirteenth century were formed for prophetic ministry to a world in change yet for centuries before Vatican II their candidates were rarely trained explicitly for this task Through years of quasi indoctrination and voluntary incarceration they were taught in a monastic atmosphere of unchanging order that the world was evil and to be avoided Conformity to a theological ecclesiastical and pastoral status quo was the most

esteemed value in a candidate This emphasis was contrary to the very nature of active religious life Religious must be prophetic challengers of the status quo within the Church and society Training for membership in active religious congregations therefore must now be radically reformed but there are no road maps available to direct educationalists in developing programmes that would stimulate candidates to be radically creative in ministry From Chaos to Mission creates a framework for radical thinking and practical action about the critical issue of formation of religious for mission today The New Religious Order James Ross Sweeney,1994 Historical Studies ,1995 The Struggle Over the Past William M. Shea,1993 The Struggle Over the Past contains essays on three facets of fundamentalist religion its international character its American Protestant form and its appearance in Roman Catholicism The papers range in methodological perspective from textual commentary to history to philosophical and theological argument They are critical as well as descriptive The papers that comprise this volume are written by leading scholars in the field Islamicist John Esposito R Scott Appleby of the Fundamentalist Project theologian Francis Fiorenza of Harvard Divinity School William Dinges of Catholic University Mary Jo Weaver of Indiana University and Terrence Tilley of the Florida State University Additional commentary by three noted scholars of American evangelical religion Samuel Hill Jr E Glenn Hinson and Bernard Ramm rounds out the examination of modern fundamentalism Co published with the College Theology Society Double Crossed Kenneth A. Briggs,2006 A study of the treatment of nuns by the Roman Catholic Church in America criticizes the church s betrayal of promised reforms revealing a pattern of exploitation that has reduced nuns to second class citizens within the church The Linacre Quarterly ,1995 Creating a Future for Religious Life Patricia Wittberg,1991 From Without the Flaminian Gate Michael Hodgetts,Vincent Alan McClelland,1999 To celebrate 150 years of Roman Catholic hierarchy in England and Wales this is a collection of essays on subjects such as Catholics and popular culture Catholics and politics seminary training and the priesthood the religious life lay apostolate education marriage family life and Catholics and art Religions of New Zealanders Peter Donovan,1996 A factual across the board introduction to the many faiths and spiritual paths in Aotearoa New Zealand
