The Holy Spirit, Women, and Mission Julie C. Ma, 2026-02-19 This book examines how Pentecostal and charismatic women develop as leaders how they actively engage in ministry and mission and how the Holy Spirit enables them to carry out God's work more effectively Although the leadership and missional abilities of women are not adequately accepted and acknowledged in the churches many Pentecostal charismatic communities have recognized and embraced them And as the scope of women's ministry has broadened from local contexts to a global one it has greatly influenced both the church and its missions Despite still struggling for equal recognition of their service in the gospel nothing and no one is able to stop the essential work of Spirit led women in Christian leadership and ministry

The Countrywoman, 1952 Being Australian Catriona Elder, 2020-07-24 After a century of speculation by writers filmmakers travelers and scholars being Australian has become a recognisable shorthand for a group of national characteristics Now in an era of international terrorism being seen as un-Australian has become a potent rhetorical weapon for some and a badge of honour for others Catriona Elder explores the origins meaning and effects of the many stories we tell about ourselves and how they have changed over time She outlines some of the traditional stories and their role in Australian nationalism and she shows how concepts of egalitarianism peaceful settlement and sporting prowess have been used to create a national identity Elder also investigates the cultural and social perspectives that have been used to critique dominant accounts of Australian identity including ideas of class gender sexuality ethnicity and race She shows how these critiques have been in turn queried in recent years Being Australian is an ideal introduction to studying Australia for anyone interested in understanding Australian society culture and history A clever work incisive and original At a time when Australian identities have never been more debated Elder finds an open way through the closed doors which often restrict cultural representations of Australian-ness Professor Adam Shoemaker Dean of Arts ANU This is a timely and significant new analysis essential reading on issues of identity and our own anxieties about national belonging and what it means to be Australian in a globalising world Kate Darian Smith Professor of Australian Studies and History University of Melbourne
