God's Companions Samuel Wells, 2008-04-15 We are pleased to announce that God's Companions by Samuel Wells has been shortlisted for the 2007 Michael Ramsey Prize for theological writing www.michaelramseyprize.org.uk Grounded in Samuel Wells experience of ordinary lives in poorer neighborhoods this book presents a striking and imaginative approach to Christian ethics It argues that Christian ethics is founded on God on the practices of human community and on worship and that ethics is fundamentally a reflection of God's abundance Wells synthesizes dogmatic liturgical ethical scriptural and pastoral approaches to theology in order to make a bold claim for the centrality of the local church in theological reflection He considers the abundance of gifts God gives through the practices of the Church particularly the Eucharist His central thesis which governs his argument throughout is that God gives his people everything they need to worship him be his friends and eat with him Wells engages with serious scholarly material yet sets out the issues lucidly for a student audience
