Kirrama Barbara Gunn, 2012-10 Kirrama Life on an Australian Cattle Station is real and as far removed from comfort and safety as anything you could find in the best fiction adventure novels It is the true life story of an average Texas ranching family who took a giant step across the boundary that lies between normal to extra ordinary adventure and sacrifice The Gunn family migrated from a small two thousand acre

Central Texas ranch in Williamson County Texas to a beautiful one hundred and six thousand acre 166 sq mile cattle station ranch in Queensland Australia The family in this book is living proof of the true strength and courage we all possess when faced with a challenge How do we learn to live without modern comforts and the advanced technology that has become very much a part of our everyday existence Little did we realize at the beginning of our journey that we had seen the last of automatic washers dryers hot water heaters and electricity for many years Now we would experience the use of concrete rub boards graduating to gas powered wringer type washers The children would be home schooled Outpost radio was the only means of communication with the outside world as well as the Royal Flying Doctor Service for verbal diagnosis and treatment of all medical conditions There was no landing strip on this property located on a rough remote mountain range therefore the doctor could only be used to instruct in a verbal capacity Kirrama aboriginal meaning for lots of water will take you through camping experiences on rivers infested with saltwater crocodiles deadly snakes sharks wild hogs and dingoes You will enjoy the wild life of the graceful yet awkward looking kangaroos curious emus and beautiful colored parrots as well as the sad times of having to prepare a loved one for burial while experiencing aboriginal life in the Great Outback of The Land Down Under Sold on Reality Time Magazine September 27 2001 reported Reality TV such as Survivor II The Australian Outback was watched by hundreds of millions of people in more than forty countries by people fascinated with excitement adventure and reality far removed from the everyday routine of their lives Reality none the less being experienced by ordinary people like themselves it creates an awakening within them that each and everyone of us possess the basic human as well as spiritual strength to survive in situations outside the safety and comforts of our own normal lives Oprah s last show in Australia was a tremendous success People are in awe of the huge cattle stations the Great Barrier Reef the unusual animals and the whole of Australia in general The stories in Kirrama will take you from our long forty two hour travel time from Austin Texas U S A to Cairns Queensland Australia including the feelings and trials of moving to a new country on to the many moves to various cattle stations in very remote outback areas and finally to our new home with many more adventures and trials People Weekly magazine in their February 5 2001 addition covered the complete story of the arrival of the Survivor II crew to Goshen which was the adjoining station to Kirrama Station The faux Stone Age Tribal Council was actually built on the rocky edge above the Herbert River where Blenco Falls cascades for 500 feet into the Herbert River Gorge on Kirrama Station Kirrama was purchased by the Gunn family from Doug and Ruth Farquhar the Australian family who then purchased Goshen Station Much of Kirrama is written about this area as well as the very remote cattle stations in the Cape York Peninsula The Publishers Weekly ,2004 The Littoral Zone CA. Cranston,Robert Zeller,2007 In this the first collection of ecocritical essays devoted to Australian contexts and their writers Australian and USA scholars settlers invaders temporary visa holders comment on the transliteration of sea land and interior through the works of major and minor authors and through their own experience with the bioregion The littoral zone is the starting point in this fresh approach to reading literature and is organised around the natural environment rainforest desert mountains coast islands Antarctica There s the beach where sexual and spiritual crises occur the Wheatbelt area the most visible clearance line on the planet desert literature camel trekking and the transformation of a salt flat into an inland island New Age literature that appropriates Aborigines and their cultures as the healing poultice for an ailing and dispirited West a re examination of pastoralism and the feet of millions of sheep that have done unspeakable damage to soils an inquiry into whether Judith Wright s work can persuade us to rejoice in the world an investigation of the Limestone Plains home of the bush capital and the bogong moth of bananas cane toads and the Great Barrier Reef in tropic Queensland of national parks and guesthouses where the mountains meet the sea a discursive approach to temperate islands that covers sealing Soldier Settlement and sea country pastoral and finally to Antarctica where an initial utopian approach gives way to an emphasis on its stark timeless icescape as a minimalist backdrop for human dramas The author terrain is no less grand in its scope poets playwrights novelists and non fiction writers are discussed across the broad range of contexts that constitutes the littoral zone known as Australia
