Kaikhosru Sorabji's Letters to Philip Heseltine (Peter Warlock) Brian Inglis,Barry Smith,2019-06-05 Two extraordinary personalities and one remarkable friendship are reflected in the unique corpus of letters from Anglo Parsi composer critic Kaikhosru Sorabji 1892 1988 to Philip Heseltine Peter Warlock 1894 1930 a fascinating primary source for the period 1913 1922 available in a complete scholarly edition for the first time The volume also provides a new contextual critical and interpretative framework incorporating a myriad of perspectives identities social geographies style construction and mutual interests and influences Pertinent period documents including evidence of Heseltine s reactions enhance the sense of narrative and expand on aesthetic discussions Through the letters entertaining and perceptive lens Sorabji s early life and compositions are vividly illuminated and Heseltine's own intriguing life and work recontextualised. What emerges takes us beyond tropes of otherness and eccentricity to reveal a persona and a narrative with great relevance to modern day debates on canonicity and identity especially the nexus of ethnicity, queer identities and Western art music. Scholars, performers and admirers of early twentieth century music in Britain and beyond will find this a valuable addition to the literature. The book will appeal to those studying or interested in early musical modernism and its reception, cultural life in London around and after the First World War, music, nationality and race, Commonwealth studies and music and sexuality.
