

"Sherlee Lantz's enthusiasm for stitchery, at which she obviously excels, is apparent throughout this profusely illustrated odyssey on needlepoint. . . . The volume appears to be the most impressive on needlepoint since the sparks a decade ago first fired American women to translate patterns on canvas."
The New York Times

"For the definitive needlepointer, also anyone who loves art, history, beauty, philosophy. . . . And what a beautiful book!"
Leo Lerman

"An awe-inspiring work of research!"

Saturday Review

"I have never expected to be awed and scared by a book on 'patterns for needlepoint canvas,' but then . . . needlepoint canvas indeed! There is a great brilliant mind working out its own patterns and intricacies. Great point and broderie in may be, but it is truly a vampirization of a subject matter by a brilliant literary mind . . . and producing a work of art the like of which I have never seen."
Norman Gary

"A dazzling tour de force . . . which in the act of analyzing an art form, becomes, itself, a work of art."
John Feather
