Poor Things:

Poor Things Alasdair Gray, 2001 One of Alasdair Gray's most brilliant creations Poor Things is a postmodern revision of Frankenstein that replaces the traditional monster with Bella Baxter a beautiful young erotomaniac brought back to life with the brain of an infant Godwin Baxter's scientific ambition to create the perfect companion is realized when he finds the drowned body of Bella but his dream is thwarted by Dr Archibald McCandless's jealous love for Baxter's creation The hilarious tale of love and scandal that ensues would be the whole story in the hands of a lesser author which in fact it is for this account is actually written by Dr McCandless For Gray though this is only half the story after which Bella aka Victoria McCandless has her own say in the matter Satirizing the classic Victorian novel Poor Things is a hilarious political allegory and a thought provoking duel between the desires of men and the independence of women from one of Scotland's most accomplished authors The Teacher's Manual for Infant Schools and Preparatory Classes Thomas Urry Young, 1852

Make / Believe John Hartley, 2025-01-23 This book illustrates that mediated popular culture and science based knowledge systems entangled and compromised as both have become are still a robust crucible for system change for the future when they combine forces Planetary crises require responses from everyone This means that collective action is not simply a scientific or political problem It is a problem of culture and media But modern politics journalism and science were not designed for global climate action They've divided humans into competitive and often hostile we and they groups Identity news and knowledge are all weaponized Culture makes groups groups make knowledge and knowledge makes enemies What can be done to prevent global conflict and the drift to war Make Believe turns to popular culture and social media to argue for an alternative storyline While the Great Powers are making new enemies emergent classes led by children are using planetary connectivity to make new worlds A digital planet generates new kinds of strategic stories for pan human action based on difference intersectionality and cooperation for a sustainable Earth system Make Believe shows how alternatives to the Great Game of global contestation are gathering strength in unlikely places among women children lifestyle and pop culture Popular digital media literacy is now a prerequisite for the remediation of the planet Tales Juliana Horatia Ewing, 1927 The Child's own singing book, or old songs for young singers Maria Hutchins Callcott, 1843
